Munden Funeral Home and Crematory, Inc. is proud of its strong community roots and history of service to families in their time of need. A 3rd generation business, our commitment has always been to offer a caring atmosphere for memorializing the life of loved ones. Originally established around 1925 by Mr. William Bell as the Newport Casket Company. William David Munden, Sr. took a position with Mr. Bell. After Mr. Bell's death in 1955 David became partners in the business with Mrs. Bell. Expanding the company to include full funeral home services, the Munden family and Mrs. Bell opened the Bell-Munden Funeral Home at its present location in 1959. Bell-Munden established a reputation to caringly respond to the needs of bereaved families and their loved ones. In 1972, Bill and Phil Munden purchased Mrs. Bell's interest in the business. Bell-Munden became a true family establishment when their sons (Taylor and Phillip) joined them ten years later. Three generations of Mundens began working together to ease the way for families in grief facing many details and decisions. In 2013, upon Phil Sr. 's passing, his son, Phillip Munden Jr. became a co-owner with Bill Munden. In 2019, Steve Odom became a partner with Bill and Phillip. Steve started with Munden Funeral Home in 2001 and has served as manager of Munden Funeral Home since 2014. In 1986, the Munden family purchased Gethsemane Memorial Park in Morehead City and in 1992 Carteret Memorial Gardens in Beaufort. These parks are a testament to their concern for ensuring that all facets of a loved ones passing can be taken care of. In 2015, a second location in Havelock was added to allow the Mundens to better serve the community of Craven County. You are welcome to come and meet the family, view their facilities and bring any questions you may have about funeral planning.
