ADVENT

Dear friends in Christ,
As we begin this new liturgical year, this new Year of Grace 2027, and this holy season of Advent, I want to commend to you some passages of Pope Leo's homily for the first Sunday of Advent from last year. He reminds us that best way to prepare for Christ's coming, or his second coming, is pursuing holiness:

…We begin Advent, the season for preparing ourselves to experience anew at Christmas the mystery of Jesus, the Son of God, "begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father"…. In this context, the… prophet Isaiah, where the invitation resounds, beckoning all peoples to ascend the mountain of the Lord (cf. v. 3), a place of light and peace… The first image is that of the mountain "established as the highest of the mountains" (cf. Is 2:2). It reminds us that the fruits of God's action in our lives are a gift not only for us, but for everyone. Zion is a city set on the mountain and symbol of a community reborn in fidelity. Its beauty is a beacon of light for men and women from every place, and serves as a reminder that the joy of goodness is contagious. The lives of many saints confirm this. Saint Peter meets Jesus thanks to the enthusiasm of his brother Andrew (cf. Jn 1:40-42), who was led to the Lord, along with the Apostle John, by John the Baptist's zeal. Saint Augustine, centuries later, comes to Christ thanks to the ardent preaching of Saint Ambrose and there are many similar examples.

We find here an invitation to renew the power of our own witness of faith. Saint John Chrysostom, a great shepherd of this Church, spoke of the allure of holiness as a sign more eloquent than many miracles. He said: "The miracle happens and passes, but the Christian life remains and continually edifies" (Commentary on the Gospel of Saint Matthew, 43, 5). In conclusion, he exhorted: "Let us therefore watch over ourselves, so that we may also benefit others" (ibid.). Dear friends, if we truly want to help the people we meet, let us "keep watch" over ourselves, as the Gospel recommends (cf. Mt 24:42) by cultivating our faith with prayer with the sacraments, living it consistently in charity, and casting off — as Saint Paul tells us in the second reading — the works of darkness and putting on the armor of light (cf. Rom 13:12). The Lord, whom we await in glory at the end of time, comes every day to knock at our door. Let us be ready for him (cf. Mt 24:44), sincerely committed to living a life of goodness, after the example of the numerous holy men and women who have dwelt in this land throughout the ages. POPE LEO XIV

HOW CAN WE PREPARE FOR THE LORD'S COMING DURING ADVENT?

Advent is a season to prepare our hearts for the coming of the Lord at Christmas and at his coming in glory. So, we wait and watch for him with eager longing and joyful expectation. We need to be ready. The spiritual practices of prayer, reconciliation, and giving to those in need, help make room in our hearts when he comes:

RECONCILIATION - Opportunities for Confession

One of the best ways to prepare our hearts for Christmas is to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In this Sacrament, God's forgiveness heals our sins and helps us begin anew. We will have wonderful confessors, all of whom will be eager to help, especially for those who haven't been to Confession in a long while.

St. Anthony: Friday, December 11, 6 – 8 PM Adoration and Confession with 1 confessor
St. Jude: Monday, December 14 – 7 PM with 6 confessors
Holy Innocents: Thursday, December 17– 7 PM with 3 confessors

ALMSGIVING

The GIVING TREE AND GIVING GARLANDS at each church help provide a joyful Christmas for so many in need. Gift tags are available on the trees and garlands. You can really make a difference in a person's life by taking a tag. The new unwrapped gifts or gift cards must be returned by the due date to get delivered. If you have any questions or want to help:
St. Anthony and Holy Innocents: Claudia Silva, Outreach coordinator, 425-788-1400 and pantry@holyinn.org
St. Jude: Gary and Susan Pilawski at 283-9094.

PRAYER

Advent is wonderful time to renew the habit of Daily Mass. Going to Daily Mass helps keep the meaning of life before our eyes and reminds us to begin each day with gratitude to God. In addition, we have wonderful opportunities for adoration in our parish family. As Christmas approaches, do we ponder what "gift" can we present to Jesus on His birthday?"Your present" could be "your presence," every week during Advent, in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. If we allow Him, the Lord can transform by his presence to be more like Him. What better way to spend this Advent "giving ourselves" to the Lord. A great present indeed.

St. Jude Adoration - Friday 9:30AM – 9PM
Holy Innocents Adoration - Friday 6PM – 8PM
St. Anthony Adoration and Rosary - Tuesday 6PM

STEWARDSHIP

We still have a long way to go to meet our stewardship goal. It is so important that we have every family's participation. We cannot do what we need to do for the Lord without everybody's help. Please ask the Lord's help to guide you in giving. You can make your pledge on our parish websites or return a pledge card from the pews. Many thanks to all who have already made your stewardship pledge. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our parish!

May this Advent be a time of great renewal for us. May we watch and wait with joyful expectation 'til he comes.
Fr. Johnson

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

IS 63:16B-17, 19B; 64:2-7; PS 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19; 1 COR 1:3-9; MK 13:33-37

Today we begin the holy season of Advent. Amid the busyness of this time of year, Advent can easily become overshadowed by shopping lists, holiday gatherings, and countless preparations. Yet if we intentionally embrace this season, it can become a time of genuine renewal and deeper discipleship.

Advent invites us to do more than prepare to celebrate Christ's birth. It also calls us to prepare our hearts for His glorious return. It is an opportunity to examine our priorities, turn back to the Lord where needed, and renew our commitment to living as faithful Christian stewards. We do this not out of fear, but out of gratitude for the God who became one of us and who promises to come again.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells of a man who leaves on a journey, placing each of his servants in charge of a particular task. Then He repeatedly urges them to remain watchful because they do not know when their master will return.

We are those servants. Each of us has been entrusted with gifts, responsibilities, and opportunities to build God's Kingdom. Advent reminds us to stay spiritually awake and faithful to the work the Lord has given us.

Our lives are a gift. This season is a gift. May we use these Advent weeks to draw closer to Christ, serve Him generously, and prepare our hearts to welcome Him with joy.

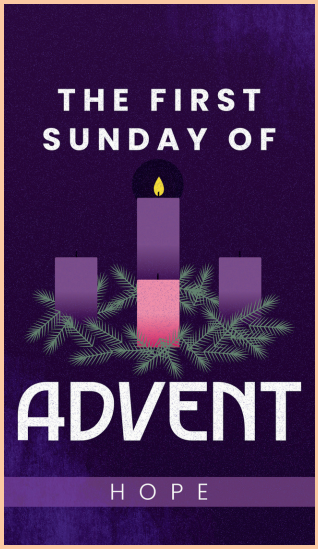
PARISH STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Stewardship of Treasure.



THE LORD HAS GIVEN SO MUCH

As we begin the season of Advent, I invite you to reflect on God's abundant blessings over the past year. Prayerfully consider the question: "What can I return to the Lord for all He has given me?"

This spirit of gratitude is at the heart of stewardship. When we truly recognize God's generosity, we discover a joyful desire—a need—to give in return.

If you have not yet pledged, I warmly invite you to make your pledge to St. Jude in support of the many ministries and services that help our community encounter Christ.

Out of gratitude for all God's gifts, thank you for joining me in supporting this year's stewardship renewal.

If you recently made a pledge to our parish for 2026, thank you so much, please accept my sincerest thanks and appreciation for participating this year!

GIVING TREES
Nov 14 through Dec 6

Our Giving trees are back once again as part of our traditional Christmas gift to those in need. They will be up until December 6. Each tag has information from one of the organizations that will let you know the gift requested and when it needs to be returned to the church. Please drop off all gift certificates at the office during office hours or place them in the mail slot on the office front door during off hours. Thank you for making someone's Christmas that much more brighter!

Read how your gifts to the Giving Tree last year gave a youth, in Juvenile Detention at the time, hope and a brighter Christmas:

Thank you donors for the awesome gifts you got for us. It made me and my friends so happy. It was really generous that you guys even thought of us. I never got to celebrate Christmas on the outs mostly because my family isn't really close with each other and they don't really care about that type of thing so I would feel jealous. Seeing other kids celebrate with their family and get presents so this was truly the best Christmas I've ever had you guys and Miss Una truly made our day we had to say the best Christmas I had was in jail, but it was. I got some nice air forces and a Nike hoodie. It's crazy because the hoodie was my favorite color. Thank you for the Bible especially you guys and Miss Tina made our holiday special. Please keep doing this for the next group of kids thank you for seeing us as kids not criminals. – AO

NATIVITY DISPLAY HELP
DECEMBER 13 AFTER 11AM MASS

We will be putting up our annual Nativity Display on Sunday, December 13 after the 11AM Mass. If you can help out this year, we would really appreciate it. This is a wonderful tradition that was started by former pastor, Fr Dave Rogerson, who had collected over 1,400 nativities from around the world. Upon his assignment, he gifted our parish with around 700 sets, and we display a different 1/3 of the set each year. This tradition continues through the support from Fr Johnson and parish staff. It is so enjoyable to open each box or unwrap each piece and be surprised with the uniqueness of each set. Questions? Email Rosanne: rosanneshay@msn.com
