Today's readings are all about consequences. In these cases, bad consequences. I always taught my children, and I say to my "Friends in Need" too, that consequences good or bad are what steer you in life. It's important when you do the right thing you receive a reward and when you do the wrong thing you get a reprimand. If you go through life without the guardrails that consequences provide, it's easy to wander off track and end up in the weeds. Pretty soon, all your consequences are bad and it's hard to get motivated. It's hard to remember the good times.

Many of our "Friends" are in just this state. That's why we like to meet them on thier own turf and get to know them. We try to provide some direction to get them back on track moving toward better times.

MASS MINUTES
By Deacon Ed Winter

A Mass is usually offered for some intention, praying to God for some good, most often for the repose of a soul or souls. This is included in the Prayers of the Faithful which ends the Liturgy of the Word. This practice goes back to the early Church. Justin Martyr said in his letter to the Roman Emperor in 155 A.D., explaining Christian worship, "Then when the reader has finished, [the leader] in a discourse instructs and exhorts to the imitation of these good things. Then we all stand up and offer prayers." (four Witnesses, Rod Bennett, p. 189)

I have previosly noted that we are "...a chosen race, a Royal Priesthood." (1 Peter, 2:9) "In these intercessions, the faithful, exercise their Baptismal Priesthood."

"Having heard the Word of God, we respond with the heart and mind of Jesus by praying for the needs of the Church and the world." (A Bibliocal Walk Through The Mass, Edward Sri) St. Thomas Aquinas said, "By no other oblation can the soul in Purgatory be more speedily released than by the Sacrifice of the Mass."
