Dear Friends & Family,

There's a moment at every holiday gathering when the cooking is finally done, the wine is poured, and everyone settles in around the table. Those are the moments we think about when we make our wines, and the ones we're grateful to be part of.

At Bledsoe Family Winery, family has always meant more than the name on the bottle. It includes the friends who have been with us since the beginning, the guests who discover us along the way, and all of you who bring our wines home to share with your own people.

This year, welcoming you into our new Walla Walla tasting room gave us another place to build those connections. Whether we see you in Walla Walla, raise a glass together in Bend, or help choose a bottle from afar, the pleasure is the same, sharing wines we're proud of with people who appreciate them.

For the holiday season, we've brought together a selection of wines for thoughtful gifting, favorite traditions, and memorable meals. We hope you'll enjoy choosing what to pour and who to share it with.

Thank you for making room for our family alongside yours. We wish you a holiday season filled with good company, wonderful meals, and plenty of reasons to linger over another glass.

With gratitude,

Thank you,

Drew Bledsoe & Josh McDaniels
