01 / THE SHROUD

A cloth that inspires wonder

The Shroud of Turin has long been venerated by the faithful and is believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus of Nazareth.

It bears the image of a man whose wounds have prompted comparisons with the Gospel accounts of the crucifixion. For many Christians, it is a powerful focus for meditation on Christ's suffering and love.

Researchers continue to explore the cloth, its history, and how its image was formed. The exhibit invites visitors to consider its enduring mysteries.

02 / THE RESEARCH

History meets investigation

Photographs and illustrations introduce scientific, historical, and forensic study of the Shroud.

The exhibit draws on the work of the Center for the Study of the Passion of Christ and the Holy Shroud, Monsignor Giulio Ricci, and other scientists who spent more than 25 years researching the cloth.

Sixty information panels across 30 displays explore its history and science. A separate title display introduces the exhibit.
