PET POLICY

Please help us to keep our community clean and safe for all our residents. Many of us are pet lovers and our pets are part of our families. However, our pets are required to follow rules just as we are required to follow certain laws.

Pasco County Ordinances prohibit pets to be unleashed and all pet excrement must be removed promptly and disposed of properly.

- Article II, Section 14-97 (a) "It shall be unlawful for any person who keeps, harbors or owns any dog or pot bellied pig to allow or permit the dog or pot bellied pig to roam, wander or run at large in, on or about any public street, roadway or place in the unincorporated area of the county or in, on or about the private property of any person or persons including the dog or pot bellied pig owner's property."
- Article II, Section 14-98 "It shall be unlawful for any person to own, harbor or keep any dog....that becomes a nuisance in the community....A nuisance for the purposes of this section, shall include...(4) Frequent or habitual depositing of excreta on property not belonging to the owner of the animal without the property owner's consent..."

The full text of Article II: Animal Control may be viewed at www.pascocountyfl.net.
Violation of these Ordinances may result in fine and/or impoundment of the pet.

Unleashed pets, may, when frightened or distracted, endanger others or themselves. Dog excrement poses a health hazard to all residents, other pets and workmen.

The County has advised the Board of Directors that Animal Control should be notified if an owner, after warning by the Homeowners Association, fails to obey these rules.

Please keep your pet on a leash. Please clean up after your pet promptly and properly.

Thank you for your cooperation.
