Tis which season?

by The Get Together Newspaper

The reason we wrote Autumn–Winter Edition and not just Autumn or just Winter is because meteorological (meet-ee-or-oh-logic-al) and astronomical (ast-ro-nom-ik-al) seasons start and end at different times. Astronomical seasons are based on the position of the Earth, but meteorological seasons are based on the temperature. Some people think November is in winter, while others think that it's in autumn.

DRAGONS

by Luna Fowley Doyle Lisa's 6th

Dragons are an amazing creature with wings that also have scales for skin and sharp teeth and claws. There are many books and stories about them. As many of you know, I'm OBSESSED with dragons. Here are a few dragon book recommendations:

Wings of Fire 1
Wings of Fire 2
Wings of Fire 3
Wings of Fire 4
Wings of Fire 5
etc.

Joke Time!

by Scout, Luna & Matilda

One time there was a man in an airport on his holidays. And he thought that he should get a limo to his hotel because he is so fancy and rich. So he hopped in the back seat of the limo and told the driver where to go. A few minutes later, he thought he should probably know where the nearest pub to his hotel is, so he tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask, and then the driver screamed and swerved into a ditch. A while later they both climbed out, and the man said “Why did you react like that? I was only asking you a question.” And then the driver said “I know, I’m sorry, I’m new to this job, for the last 30 years I’ve been driving a hearse!”
