SUNDAY REFLECTION

The Gospel for today's feast is always Matthew's account of the Beatitudes. At first they seem to favor the meek, the humble, the merciful. But then Jesus ends with some tough ones, aimed at those who are persecuted, insulted, and slandered. While it may sound negative, Jesus is actually giving us encouragement. Jesus isn't telling us to make enemies, but not to be afraid if we do. An important part of our faith is the imperative to spread it. Some people do that by sharing their faith during their lunch break. Others teach formation classes to prospective Christians. So there are many ways to spread the faith, and many types of saints who are celebrated today. Maybe today would be a good day to learn about your favorite saint. What made her special? How did he spread the faith? What persecution did they suffer? Perhaps you could talk about the saints with your children. What saint shares a name with your child? As St. John says in the second reading, we are all God's children (1 John 3:2). As we get to know our favorite saints, their lives can inspire us to face persecution or ridicule for our faith—or at least the courage to talk about our faith, and maybe change someone else's life.

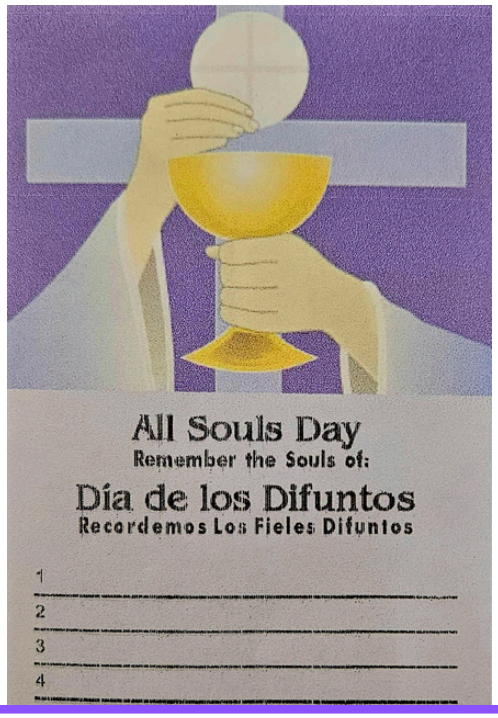
To all the People of God in the Archdiocese of San Antonio, Texas
Grace and peace be with you.

We continue inviting you to celebrate our local jubilee. We want all to join us in the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the elevation of San Antonio as Metropolitan Archdiocese, which took place on August 3, 1926. This is another significant milestone shaping our synodal journey since the canonical establishment in 1874 and now celebrating 100 years of missionary discipleship.

We must remember the countless individuals who have played pivotal roles in the growth and development of this Archdiocese such as Father Antonio Margil de Jesús. Each chapter of our history is marked by the grace of God and the contributions of many faithful souls.

There will be a Mass on Saturday, November 7th, 2026, at 4:00pm. The celebration will be held at Nelson W. Wolff Stadium, with seats free of charge. Doors open at 3:00pm.



Remember the Souls of your loved ones.
All Souls Day envelopes are at the church main entrance. Add the names of your loved ones on the envelopes and they will be placed in front of the Altar, where they will be remembered at the masses during the month of November.

Join us on November 2nd at 9:00 AM in the main Church, Fr. Jesus G. Anguiano, S.T.L. will celebrate a special bilingual Mass for All Souls' Day / Dia de los Fieles Difuntos.
