REFLEXION DE EL DOMINGO

Siempre pensé que el punto de esta parábola era que reconozcamos a Dios en los pobres, los enfermos, los desamparados, los prisioneros, etc., pero las personas de la parábola que ayudaron a todos los necesitados no reconocieron a Cristo en los necesitados. Por eso les dice que todo lo que hagamos por "aquellos más insignificantes", lo hacemos por Cristo. En realidad, esto es una buena noticia, porque no siempre es fácil reconocer a Cristo en los demás. Solía pensar que una vez que empiece a ver a Cristo en todas las personas, estaría más dispuesto a ayudarlas, pero también funciona al revés. Cuando ayudas a alguien necesitado, comienzas a ver a Cristo allí también. Ya sea un prisionero condenado a muerte o una familia sin hogar, debemos dar ese salto de fe para ayudar, sin saber si alguna vez veremos a Cristo en ellos. Acuérdate que Dios nos perdona y salva porque necesitamos a Dios, no porque lo merezcamos.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

I always thought the point of this parable was that we recognize God in the poor, the sick, the homeless, prisoners, etc. But the people in the parable who helped all those in need did not recognize Christ in the needy. That's why he tells them that whatever we do for "these least ones," we do for Christ. That is actually good news, because it is not always easy to recognize Christ in others. I used to think that once I start seeing Christ in all people, I'll be more willing to help them. But it also works the other way. When you help someone in need, you begin to see Christ there, too. Whether it is a death-row prisoner or a homeless family, we take that leap of faith to help, not because we see Christ in them but just because they need help. Remember, God forgives and saves us because we need God, not because we deserve it.

Continuing with the tradition of our Southwest Deanery to select members of each parish who have volunteered during the year to our programs and received an award. This year, Fr. Jesus G. Anguiano, S.T.L. and all of us here at St. Henry's would like to express our sincere appreciation to Hestroverto "Nick" and Rosalinda Martinez for all that they do for our community. They have dedicated their lives to faith, family, and community. Over the past year, Nick and Rosalinda have helped introduce several first-ever ministries and faith formation initiatives at St. Henry's. Thank you for all that you do! May God bless you richly as you continue in your service for Him.
