Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

A JUDGE WHO SAVES

Both the first reading and the gospel speak of separating the sheep from the goats. It is distinction which is done by God who uses only one criterion: Love of mankind. The life of a person is considered a success or a failure on the basis of what was done by that person to alleviate six situations of suffering and poverty: hunger, thirst, exile, nakedness, disease, prison.

Jesus tells us that all our religion is summed up in the diligence and zeal with which we fight against these inhuman situations.

To drive this truth home even better, he uses the image of final judgment. This is not to show us what will happen at the end of the world, but to teach us what really counts in the life of any person.

The second reading is connected to this because this teaches us that the kingdom of the Messiah is being built in this world through deeds of love for others.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi
(Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
