Beloved in the Lord,

Happy All Saints Day and Allhallowtide! Halloween at our parish has been fun these past few years and this year as well with the establishment of our Trunk or Treat for the young ones of our parish and our community. Thanks very much to those who have planned this event and signed up to fill a parking spot!

Monday is All Souls Day. On this day, the Church commemorates the souls of all the faithful departed, keeping especially in mind those souls who are going through their final purification in Purgatory. This is a special opportunity to pray for the repose of those loved ones whom we have lost, but indeed even those souls who have long been forgotten by the passage of who are still very much in need of our prayers.

For this, I encourage the use of this simple yet beautiful old indulgenced prayer of Saint Gertrude:

> Eternal Father, I offer You the most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

All of November is a month of prayer for the Souls in Purgatory. Remember that we will have our Book of the names of the Dead available this month for you to inscribe the names of those loved ones lost in the last year.

No Mass or Confessions Tuesday

As I myself celebrate 5 years of priestly ministry, the joy of the priesthood has been much on my mind and with multiple points of contact. This last week, on Tuesday, was the anniversary of the Death of Fr. Lee Gross. Fr. Gross was the much-beloved, long time Dean of Men and professor of Latin and Eucharistic Theology at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary where I attended. Fr. Gross was my spiritual director in my first years there and taught me to say the Traditional Latin Mass, which I joyfully say on Mondays, my weekly day of rest. He was a good and holy priest, devoted to prayer and to the men he helped to form. I will be ever grateful for his fatherly care. Please pray for the repose of his soul.

Also, this week is the 25th Anniversary of the Ordination of my home-parish pastor, Fr. Daniel Scheidt. There is a special Mass and celebration at Saint Vincent in Fort Wayne Tuesday this week. As a son of the parish, I've been invited to attend. Happily do I go, hence, no Confessions or Mass at St. Robert this Tuesday.

Please pray with me in thanksgiving for the good example of holy priests and that God may give us more!
Oremus pro invicem,
Rev. Daniel Koehl

United In Mission - Annual Bishop's Appeal

The Annual Bishop's Appeal invites each of us to participate in the life and mission of the Church across our diocese. Your generosity helps strengthen our parishes and schools, provide formation for seminarians and clergy, and serve those most in need through diocesan ministries and Catholic Charities. As Bishop Rhoades reminds us, we are called to be the "salt of the earth and light of the world." Thank you for your generosity and for helping our diocese continue this mission together. Learn more and make your gift at diocesefwsb.org/aba
