Second Sunday of Ordinary Time Sunday 18th January 2026

'Behold the Lamb of God, Behold him who takes away the sin of the world.'

Peace Sunday 18th January

Towards and 'unarmed and disarming' peace

This year's Peace Sunday theme, "Peace be with you all: Towards an 'unarmed and disarming' peace," reminds us that peace isn't just something for governments or world leaders. It begins with us, in our homes, workplaces and communities. "Unarmed" peace means choosing patience instead of anger, listening instead of assuming, and seeking understanding instead of winning arguments. "Disarming" peace means helping others feel safe, welcomed and respected.

Small steps matter: reaching out to someone who feels isolated, supporting those affected by conflict, speaking kindly, or joining local efforts for justice and reconciliation. As followers of Christ, we are invited to make peace a daily habit, trusting that God can multiply even the smallest acts of goodwill.

Opening Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of your people and bestow your peace on our times.

First reading Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.' And now the Lord says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him — for I am honoured in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength — he says: 'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel; I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Behold, I have come, Lord, to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the Lord, and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God.

You delight not in sacrifice and offering, but in an open ear. You do not ask for holocaust and sin offering. Then I said, 'Behold, I have come.'

In the scroll of the book it stands written of me: 'I delight to do your will, O my God; your instruction lies deep within me.'

Your uprightness I have proclaimed in the great assembly. My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord.

Second reading 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called by the will of God to be an

Apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,

To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Alleluia, alleluia.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; to all who did receive him, he gave the authority to become children of God.

Alleluia.

Gospel John 1:29-34

At that time: John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit." And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.'

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

This year's Week of Prayer for Christian Unity runs from 18–25 January 2026, inviting Christians to pray together for unity in the Church. The theme is taken from Ephesians: "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling." It reminds us that, despite different traditions, we share one hope in Christ and are called to live in love and harmony. You could join an ecumenical prayer service, share a simple prayer with neighbours from other churches, host a joint breakfast, or light a candle each evening while praying for visible unity. Let's walk and pray together this week!
