Stand Up Sunday reconoce todos los que han completado la formación de VIRTUS

Este fin de semana, en solidaridad con los que han sido perjudicados, y como una demostración visible de nuestro compromiso continuo a la prevención del abuso sexual de menores, las parroquias de toda la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles están ofreciendo Misas y oraciones en apoyo de el Día Mundial para la Prevención y la Sanación de la Explotación, el Abuso y la Violencia contra los Niños. Nos gustaría reconocer y dar las gracias a todos los miembros de nuestras comunidades parroquiales que han completado la formación VIRTUS® para la prevención de abuso sexual, así como el requisito de verificación de antecedentes y huellas digitales, ahora estándar para todos los que trabajan o son voluntarios en la iglesia. Cada uno de ustedes es una bendición para nuestras parroquias y comunidades y una representación viva de los esfuerzos de la Iglesia de proteger a los más vulnerables entre nosotros. Para obtener más información sobre VIRTUS® o inscribirse en una sesión de formación, por favor visite lacatholics.org/education-and-training.

DID YOU KNOW?

Stand Up Sunday recognizes those who have completed VIRTUS® Training

This weekend, in solidarity with those who have been harmed, and as a visible demonstration of our ongoing commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse, parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles are offering Masses and prayers in support of the World Day for the Prevention of and Healing from Child Exploitation, Abuse and Violence. We would like to recognize and give thanks for all in our parish communities who have completed the VIRTUS® Sexual Abuse Prevention Training and requisite background checks and fingerprinting, now standard for those working or volunteering in the church. Each of you is a blessing to our parishes and greater communities and is a living representation of the Church's efforts to protect the most vulnerable among us. If you would like to learn more about VIRTUS® or sign up for a training session please visit, lacatholics.org/education-and-training.

Prayer for Healing of Victims of Abuse

Holy Spirt, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and wisdom,
humility and grace, to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

REFLECTION

By Deacon Ezequiel Martinez

Matthew 25:14-30

God calls us to serve in His Kingdom and gives us the gifts necessary to do His will. God wants to give us His love and at the same time, wants us to share it with others. We do this through the gifts that He gives us. Gifts such as the ability to teach or preach to others about the love that Jesus has for all of us. Gifts that allow us to bring the love of Christ to others through works of charity. Gifts that give hope and peace to those that are living in troubled times. You can say that God has very high expectations for us. This is exactly the point that Jesus is teaching us in the Parable of the Talents. (Before we continue, I should clarify that talents are a form of currency used during those times.)

In this parable, Jesus tells us that the master was very well pleased with the two that put to work the talents that were given to them and made additional talents. Their reward was not only greater responsibility, but also seeing that they had pleased their master. However, the master was not pleased with the servant that did not put to work the talent that he was given and instead dug a hole and hid it. This poor servant revealed that he knew about the high expectations of his master and out of fear, decided to hide the talent instead of putting it to work. His work did not meet the expectations of the master and therefore suffered a great consequence – damnation.

My brothers and sisters, Jesus is the very demanding master. He has very high expectations for all His followers. He has given you many gifts to put to work in order to help spread the love of Christ, but He leaves it up to you. What will you do with the talents that He entrusts you with? Will you be fruitful and as a reward, hear the voice of the master as He tells you, “Well done, my good and faithful servant.” Or will you do nothing with the talents that He has given you and instead hear the disappointed words of the master when He says to you, “You wicked, lazy servant” and then continues by telling the others, “Throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.” The choice is yours.

XXXIII Domingo Ordinario
Mateo 25:14-30

Dios nos llama a servir en Su Reino y nos da los dones necesarios para hacer Su voluntad. Dios quiere darnos su amor y al mismo tiempo quiere que lo compartamos con los demás. Hacemos esto a través de los dones que Él nos da. Dones como la capacidad de enseñar o predicar a otros sobre el amor que Jesús tiene por todos nosotros. Dones que nos permiten llevar el amor de Cristo a los demás a través de obras de caridad. Dones que dan esperanza y paz a quienes viven en tiempos difíciles. Se puede decir que Dios tiene expectativas muy altas para nosotros. Este es exactamente el punto que Jesús nos enseña en la parábola de los talentos. (Antes de continuar, debo aclarar que los talentos son una forma de moneda utilizada en esos tiempos).

En esta parábola, Jesús nos dice que el señor quedó muy complacido con los dos que pusieron a trabajar los talentos que les fueron dados e hicieron talentos adicionales. Su recompensa no sólo fue confianza en cosas de mucho valor, sino también ver que habían complacido a su señor. Sin embargo, el señor no estaba contento con el siervo que no puso a trabajar el talento que le había dado y en lugar de eso cavó un hoyo y lo escondió. Este pobre siervo reveló que conocía las altas expectativas de su señor y por miedo decidió ocultar el talento en lugar de ponerlo a trabajar. Su trabajo no cumplió con las expectativas del señor y por eso sufrió una gran consecuencia: la condenación.

Hermanos y hermanas, Jesús es el Señor que nos exige mucho. Tiene expectativas muy altas para todos sus seguidores. Él te ha dado muchos dones para que los pongas en práctica a fin de ayudar a difundir el amor de Cristo, pero lo deja a tu voluntad. ¿Qué harás con los talentos que Él te confía? Serás fructífero y como recompensa escucharás la voz del Señor que te diga: “Te felicito, siervo bueno y fiel.” O no harás nada con los talentos que Él te ha dado y en lugar de eso escucharás las palabras desilusionadas del Señor cuando te diga: “Siervo malo y perezoso” y luego continuará diciéndoles a los demás: “Y a este hombre inútil, échenlo fuera, a las tinieblas. Allí será el llanto y la desesperación”. La decisión es tuya.
