The funds go to the missions under the supervision of the Pope. This collection is dear to his heart and helps missionary priests.

TPMS provide financial support for 2 out of every 5 seminarians around the world. A full 41% of all Catholic seminarians study and work in mission dioceses. These seminarians live in mission dioceses and would not be able to study as they do now without this collection.

"I saw firsthand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities."

REFLECTION

By Deacon Ezequiel Martinez

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 22:15-21

In the Bible, we see that Jesus has many enemies. Whether it be the Pharisees, Sadducees, or Herodians, it didn't matter, they all had one goal and that was to discredit Jesus. They would constantly setup traps for Jesus with the hope of showing the world that Jesus was not who He said He was. However, Jesus would never fall into their traps. He was always "shrewd like a serpent and gentle like a dove".It is because of this that Jesus was a great chess master when it came to speaking to His enemies. Take for example today's Gospel reading.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus is questioned by a Pharisee and a Herodian about paying taxes. "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?", they asked Him. They knew very well that if Jesus answered "yes" then He would be rejected by His own people since the Jews opposed paying taxes. However, if Jesus answered "no", then He would be liable to the Roman authorities and quite possibly start a revolt between the Jews and the Romans.Jesus answered perfectly and without taking a side, He was able to teach them a lesson. He said, "…Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." In other words, give to Caesar what is owed to him for using his coin, but more importantly, give to God what should be rightfully offered to Him and these are our good works.

My brothers and sisters, if you haven't noticed, the world hates Christ and those that follow Christ.In fact, the Bible tells us that "if the world hates us, know that it hated Jesus first". One way that the world shows its hate towards Jesus is by attacking His bride, our Church, and her teachings. The question is this: what are you going to do about it? Will you just sit there and not say a word or will you defend Christ's bride, the Church, by being shrewd like a serpent and gentle like a dove? Speaking up in defense of the Church and her teachings is an example of giving God our good works. In this day and age, there seems to be a lot of talk against what the Church teaches.This is a great opportunity for you to be faithful to the Church by defending her teachings and by doing so, you will be giving God what belongs to God and those are your good works.

XXIX Domingo Ordinario
Mateo 22:15-21

En la Biblia vemos que Jesús tiene muchos enemigos. Ya fueran fariseos, saduceos o herodianos, no importa, todos tenían un objetivo y ese era desacreditar a Jesús. Constantemente le preparaban trampas a Jesús con la esperanza de mostrarle al mundo que Jesús no era quien decía ser. Sin embargo, Jesús nunca caería en sus trampas. Él siempre fue "prudente como las serpientes, y sencillo como las palomas". Es por esto por lo que Jesús fue un gran maestro del ajedrez a la hora de hablar con sus enemigos. Tomemos, por ejemplo, la lectura del Evangelio de hoy.

En la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, un fariseo y un herodiano interrogan a Jesús sobre el pago de impuestos. "¿Es lícito o no pagar el tributo al César?", le preguntaron. Sabían muy bien que si Jesús respondía "sí" entonces sería rechazado por su propio pueblo ya que los judíos se oponían a pagar impuestos. Sin embargo, si Jesús respondía "no", entonces sería responsable ante las autoridades romanas y muy posiblemente comenzaría una revuelta entre judíos y romanos. Jesús respondió perfectamente y sin tomar partido, pudo darles una lección. Dijo: " Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios." En otras palabras, darle al César lo que se le debe por usar su moneda, pero más importante aún, darle a Dios lo que legítimamente se le debe ofrecer y estas son nuestras buenas obras.

Mis hermanos y hermanas, si no se han dado cuenta, el mundo odia a Cristo y a los que siguen a Cristo. De hecho, la Biblia nos dice que "Si el mundo los odia, sepan que antes me odió a mí". Una forma en que el mundo muestra su odio hacia Jesús es atacando a Su esposa, nuestra Iglesia y sus enseñanzas. Te pregunto esto: ¿qué vas a hacer al respecto? ¿Te quedarás ahí sentado sin decir ni una sola palabra o defenderás a la esposa de Cristo, la Iglesia, siendo prudente como las serpiente, y sencillo como la paloma? Hablar en defensa de la Iglesia y sus enseñanzas es un ejemplo de entregarle a Dios nuestras buenas obras. Hoy en día, parece que se habla mucho en contra de lo que enseña la Iglesia. Esta es una gran oportunidad para que seas fiel a la Iglesia defendiendo sus enseñanzas y al hacerlo estarás dándole a Dios lo que es de Dios y esas son tus buenas obras.
