Nine ways to spend a day on the water.

A hand-built Zanzibari dhow, launched from the beach in front of your room. A chef, a table in linen and ceramics, twenty guests at most — and private parties are never combined.

JOUD BY THE SEA · JAMBIANI BEACH

"Where the tide writes the itinerary."

THE BOAT

One dhow, hand-built for twenty guests.

Orénda is a timber dhow under a lateen sail, built in Zanzibar the way these boats have been built for centuries — and finished for a hotel table: shade, cushions on deck, and a galley with a grill and two hot plates.

There is one boat and one crew — the same captain, the same host, every sailing. What that buys you is consistency. She launches from the sand in front of Joud By The Sea; you walk from your room to the water.

At low tide she rests on the white flats of the Jambiani lagoon. When the water comes in, the sail goes up.

1 · Booking & payment

Book through the activity desk or reception at Joud By The Sea, by WhatsApp or by email. A booking is confirmed once we have confirmed the boat and crew and it is paid in full or charged to your room. Charters and weddings: 50% to confirm, the balance seven days before.

3 · Private & shared

Private parties are never combined with other guests. Shared far-reef days sail with eight guests or more (ten on full days); if that is not reached by 17:00 the day before, you choose another date, the private rate, or a full refund.

The captain has final authority to delay, reroute, shorten or cancel for weather, sea state or safety. If we cancel before departure you are offered a new date or a full refund. If a sailing is materially shortened, we agree a fair remedy with you. Times and routes move with the tide.

6 · Wildlife

Dolphins, starfish and sunsets are nature, not a promise, and are not grounds for a refund. We never chase dolphins and never lift starfish from the water — please follow the crew's lead.
