SERMON NOTES

COLLIN BAKER

I AM WEARY, LORD

1. We Will Get Weary
   - 2 Samuel 21:15
   - Even strong and faithful people can become tired and weary.
   - Continuous battles can drain our physical, emotional, and spiritual strength.
   - Recognizing our limitations is not a sign of failure; it reminds us that we need God's strength.
   - Weariness is part of the journey, but it does not have to be the end of the journey.
2. Giants Keep Coming
   - 2 Samuel 21:16, 18-20
   - David and his men faced repeated battles against the Philistine giants.
   - Overcoming one challenge does not mean there will never be another.
   - Giants represent the difficult obstacles and battles we encounter in life.
   - We must remain dependent on God as new challenges arise.
   - Do not allow repeated battles to convince you that victory is impossible. Keep trusting God.
3. God Will Send People
   - 2 Samuel 21:16, 18–20
   - Ecclesiastes 4:9–10
   - Jeremiah 23:21, 32
   - David's men came to his aid when he became weary.
   - God often uses other people to provide support, encouragement, and strength.
   - We are not designed to face every battle alone.
   - Just as we need others, we should also be willing to help those who are struggling.
   - Not everyone who claims to be sent by God is sent by Him. We must remain discerning and grounded in His Word.
4. Building the Legacy
   - 2 Samuel 21:22
   - David's mighty men continued fighting and overcame the giants.
   - The victories were not accomplished by David alone.
   - God's work continued through others who stood alongside him.
   - A lasting legacy is built when we strengthen, equip, and encourage others to continue the work.
   - Our purpose is bigger than our individual battles. We can help others stand, grow, and carry the work forward.
