From the Pastor

Brothers and Sisters,

First, I want to thank everyone who sent me a faith story, and I want to encourage others to do likewise. These do not need to be miraculous stories. In fact, more often than not God presents himself to us in the ordinary situations of daily life. It is important that we learn to share these stories, so that others too may learn to recognize God present in their midst and may deepen their relationship with God. Remember, we have a mission to make disciples of all nations (Matt 28:19-20). Doing so requires that we share with others those moments when we have witnessed Christ at work in our own lives.

My plan is to print the various stories of faith (with the permission of the authors) as a monthly insert. I am hopeful that this can be maintained as a regular feature of our bulletin and parish life. This will require everyone to do their part by willingly sharing their faith. This includes you! Yes, you, the one reading this. Even if you are homebound!

It is no secret that Mass attendance has dropped lately (in our Parish and throughout the world).. By sharing our stories we can strengthen each other so that we may successfully evangelize the world and bring others to Christ through the sacramental life of the Church.

I also want to remind people that our parish feast day is next weekend. We have a parish dinner on November 15th after the 10:00am Mass. Gathering together allows us to socialize, know each other better and share our lives with each other as we honor our patron saint, Stanislaus Kostka. Relationships are often formed and nourished over a shared meal, so I hope that you will participate in this share meal and build relationships with fellow disciples (perhaps even some who attend Mass at a different time than you).

Peace,

Fr. Brian

Parish Feast Day Meal

Join us on November 15, 2026
at 11:00am in the parish hall to honor our patron, St. Stanislaus Kostka

An Italian meal will be served (even though he is Polish). Tickets are $10 per parishioner, and can be purchased after Mass or at the Parish office.

New Locks

The locks on the Church, Hall and Office were changed this week.

If you need access to Church buildings, please contact the Parish Office during normal business hours.

Share Your Story

Disciples have an obligation to share their experience of Christ with others.

Please share your story of faith with the parish. By sharing our stories of faith as it is lived out in our lives, we help others come to know and recognize Christ more fully.

Faith is not something meant to be private, but to be proclaimed from the rooftops (Matt 10:27). So please share your stories with us, so that we can grow into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Send your story to:

Evening Bible Study? Tuesday Chosen?

Fr. Brian was recently approached by two different parishioners willing to lead evening faith formation activities. One idea was a Bible study held on a weekday evening. The other was a showing of The Chosen on Tuesday evenings (beginning in January).

Before starting either, we want to know if these would be of interest to parishioners. Please send Fr. Brian an email if you would likely participate in either of these.

Musicians Needed

We are hiring for the position of Director of Sacred Music.

Also, we are in need of musicians for Christmas Eve Masses. Contact Fr. Brian if you can help.
