From the Pastor

Brothers and Sisters,

Our bulletin space was limited this week, as there were several mandated announcements that I had to include. So I am going to use this space for a few more announcements.

First, as Thanksgiving is rapidly approaching, I want to share my gratitude to Palace of Flowers who has been supplying us with flowers for our altar (in many cases for free or at cost!). Please support them as they have supported our parish.

While I am on the topic of giving thanks, I want to thank those who have been sending in testimonies of faith. I plan to print those in Advent, so keep them coming. Perhaps even share a story as to how your family honors Jesus during Advent!

I also have a few announcements of things upcoming.

First, some parishioners have approached me regarding a weekly bible study. If this is something you would like to join, please let me know (I have only had one family respond to date).

We will continue the tradition of having a booth at Christmas in New Carlisle this year. That takes place the Sunday after Thanksgiving (November 29). Please stop by our parish booth to say hello. Consider bringing a friend to the booth and inviting them to Mass, as this would be a great opportunity to evangelize.

Finally, I want to share with you that I will have an article entitled "In the Age of AI, The Non-Sacramental Life Is Not Worth Living," published by Word on Fire in their Evangelization & Catechesis Online. The article is currently set for publication on Tuesday, November 17, 2026. You can find it by visiting www.wordonfire.org (search under articles).

Peace,

Fr. Brian

Safe Environment

It remains important for our Church to protect children and young persons from the evils of abuse. The Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend remains committed to upholding and following its guidelines, policies and procedures that were implemented for the protection of children and young people. These can be reviewed on the diocese's website, www.diocesefwsb.org, under "Youth Protection."

If you have reason to believe that a minor may be a victim of child abuse or neglect, Indiana law requires that you report this to civil authorities. If you or someone you know was abused as a child or young person by an adult, you are encouraged to notify appropriate civil authorities of that abuse. In addition, if the alleged abuser is or was a priest or deacon of the Catholic Church, you are encouraged to contact Jodi Marlin, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at (260) 399-1447 or jmarlin@diocesefwsb.org; or Rev. Mark Gurtner, Vicar General of the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend, at P.O. Box 390, Fort Wayne, Indiana, 46801; at (260) 399-1419; or at mgurtner@diocesefwsb.org. The diocese is committed to helping prevent the abuse or neglect of children and young people and to assist those who have suffered harm as a result of such abuse.

Evening Bible Study? Tuesday Chosen?

Fr. Brian was recently approached by two different parishioners willing to lead evening faith formation activities. One idea was a Bible study held on a weekday evening. The other was a showing of The Chosen on Tuesday evenings (beginning in January).

Before starting either, we want to know if these would be of interest to parishioners. Please send Fr. Brian an email if you would likely participate in either of these.

Bishops' Appeal Update

We are currently at 69% of our Annual Bishop's Appeal goal. Thank you to those who have donated.

If you have yet to make your contribution, envelopes can be found at the entrances to the Church
