Fishback was a featured speaker at Joel Webbon's "Christ is King" conference in November.

Fishback spoke at "Christ is King: America After Trump," held November 12–14, 2026 at the Irving Convention Center outside Dallas. The conference was hosted by Pastor Joel Webbon's group, the New Christian Right (NXR). Fishback posted his full 54-minute speech as a pinned video on X. The quotes below are from that speech; times link to the video on YouTube. (X video)

- AIPAC (2:29): "If you take money from AIPAC, you are a traitor to the United States of America."
- Trump (5:25): He said Trump, who in 2016 warned that his rivals were "bought by Israel," then "took a quarter billion dollars from the AIPAC Queen herself, Miriam Adelson."

- “Usury farm” (47:06): Explaining why he struggles to call himself a conservative, he asked what there is left to conserve: “OnlyFans. Next to a strip club, next to a weed shop, next to a liquor store run by an Arab. Next to a usury farm known as a bank, next to a data center, next to a Flock camera.”
- White men (19:49): Saying immigrants hold jobs “that white men in Texas, in Florida, in Illinois, and Ohio used to have,” he said: “Deport every single one of them. Give white men in this country a chance. It’s their country after all.”

In his own speech to the same conference, host Joel Webbon said:

- "The Jews were the most stiff-necked, rebellious, unbelieving, wicked people who ever lived." (Talking Points Memo)
- "No more Judaism, Judeo-Christianity." (Baptist News Global)
- "We're done with equality… Christianity is American. Islam is not. Hinduism is not. Judaism is not." (American Atheists)

Webbon has also pinned a post on X that said, "those of Jewish descent are generally marked by subversion, deceit, and greed." (Wikipedia) (see also Forward)

Finally, James Fishback has also been accused of a secret relationship with a 17-year-old student and of abusive behavior toward her. He denies the allegations.

- Misconduct allegation involving a debate student: A former Incubate Debate student says he began a secret romantic relationship with her in spring 2022, when she was 17 and he was 27. The Broward School District says it cut ties with him and the program in 2022 over the allegations. He calls them "completely false." (NBC News)
- Protection petition: The same woman sought a stalking injunction in January 2025. Her petition alleged he threw objects, screamed and once grabbed her arm, leaving marks. The court denied it in June 2025, saying he may have been "a little obsessive-compulsive" but broke no law. He says he was "fully exonerated." (Florida's Voice)
