"Behold this heart which has loved so much"

The Church celebrated the feast of Saint Margret Mary on October 16th. She was the visionary who had revelations of Jesus and his Sacred Heart. Jesus appeared to her with his heart in flames. He asked her to spread devotion to his Sacred Heart, to ignite Jesus' mercy and Love to all. This loving triumph over sin and death. How much does Jesus love us, and our response to this love truly matters to him.

"Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on us."

Thank you to everyone who has continued to support the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Every gift supports more than 40 ministries throughout southeastern Wisconsin.

Thanks to your generosity, St. Barnabas has raised $2,820.00 so far. We deeply appreciate your continued kindness and support.

November - we remember our beloved dead

With the feasts of All Saints and All Souls Day, the Catholic community pauses in solemn remembrance of those in the Body of Christ who have gone to be with Jesus. Why do we do this in November? As the church year draws to a close, it is natural that we look forward to the end times for each one of us and for all of creation when we will be reunited with our loving God. We invite all of you to share in this special month by bringing photos of loved ones who have died. (Please remember to put your name and phone number on the back of the picture so they can be returned.) Place them on the joyful altar of remembrance, the Ofrenda, a tradition from Mexico which celebrates our continuing connection to those we love. You can also express your love by adding names to our parish Book of Remembrance next to the Ofrenda.

Anyone who would like to help decorate the Ofrenda, please join us on Thursday, October 29th at 5:00 p.m.

Noviembre – Recordamos a nuestros amados difuntos

Con las solemnidades de Todos los Santos y de los Fieles Difuntos, la comunidad católica se detiene en un solemne recuerdo de aquellos en el Cuerpo de Cristo que han partido para estar con Jesús. ¿Por qué hacemos esto en noviembre? A medida que el año litúrgico llega a su fin, es natural que miremos hacia el final de los tiempos para cada uno de nosotros y para toda la creación, cuando nos reunimos con nuestro Dios amoroso. Los invitamos a todos a participar en este mes tan especial trayendo fotografías de sus seres queridos fallecidos. (Por favor, recuerde escribir su nombre y número de teléfono en el reverso de la foto para que pueda ser devuelta). Colóquese en el alegre altar del recuerdo, la Ofrenda, una tradición de México que celebra nuestra continua conexión con quienes amamos. También puede expresar su amor escribiendo los nombres en el Libro del Recuerdo de nuestra parroquia, ubicado junto a la Ofrenda.

Cualquier persona que desee ayudar a decorar la Ofrenda, por favor acompáñenos el jueves 29 de octubre a las 5:00 p.m.

Faith, Conscience, and Our Responsibility as Citizens

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Sunday, we reflected on Jesus' words: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Matthew 22:21).

As we approach the November elections, these words remind us of our responsibilities to society and to God. As citizens, we are called to participate responsibly in public life. As Christians, we must allow the Gospel to guide our decisions.

Voting is more than personal preference, political loyalty, or economic interest. It is a moral responsibility that requires us to be informed, think critically, and consider how our choices affect others, especially the most vulnerable.

At the heart of Catholic social teaching is a fundamental conviction: every human being is created in God's image and possesses an inviolable dignity.

The Church therefore defends human life from conception to natural death. This includes protecting unborn children, opposing abortion, euthanasia, assisted suicide, and the death penalty, and caring for the poor, immigrants, the sick, the elderly, and all whose dignity is threatened.

Not every moral issue carries equal weight; some involve fundamental principles that cannot be compromised. Yet our conscience must be formed by the whole Gospel, not merely by teachings that agree with our political preferences.

As we prepare to vote, I encourage everyone to examine candidates' positions and records, consider the consequences of their policies, and prayerfully reflect on these questions:

- Does my faith guide my political decisions, or do my political preferences shape my understanding of faith?
- How will my choices affect the most vulnerable?
- Am I seeking the common good, or merely what benefits me or my group?

No political party fully represents the Gospel, and no candidate deserves our unquestioning loyalty. The Church does not tell us which party to support but calls us to form our consciences and act with wisdom and integrity.

We may reach different conclusions on political questions, but we must never allow these differences to destroy our unity as brothers and sisters in Christ.

As Election Day approaches, let us pray for wisdom to discern, courage to defend what is right, and humility to let the Gospel challenge our convictions.

Our ultimate loyalty belongs not to a political party, but to God. May our decisions reflect that loyalty and help build a society where life is respected, justice is pursued, and the common good is served.

God bless you all,
Fr. Gerardo Carcar
Pastor, St. Barnabas Parish

Fe, conciencia y nuestra responsabilidad como ciudadanos

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El domingo pasado reflexionamos sobre las palabras de Jesús: «Den al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios.» (Mateo 22,21).

Al acercarnos a las elecciones de noviembre, estas palabras nos recuerdan nuestras responsabilidades ante la sociedad y ante Dios. Como ciudadanos, estamos llamados a participar responsablemente en la vida pública. Como cristianos, debemos permitir que el Evangelio ilumine nuestras decisiones.

Votar es mucho más que una cuestión de preferencias personales, lealtades políticas o intereses económicos. Es una responsabilidad moral que exige informarnos, reflexionar críticamente y considerar cómo nuestras decisiones afectan a los demás, especialmente a los más vulnerables.

En el corazón de la doctrina social de la Iglesia encontramos una convicción fundamental: todo ser humano ha sido creado a imagen y semejanza de Dios y posee una dignidad inviolable.

Por eso, la Iglesia defiende la vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Este compromiso incluye la protección de los niños por nacer, el rechazo del aborto, la eutanasia, el suicidio asistido y la pena de muerte, así como la preocupación por los pobres, los inmigrantes, los enfermos, los ancianos y todos aquellos cuya dignidad se encuentra amenazada.

No todas las cuestiones morales tienen el mismo peso, y algunas implican principios fundamentales que no admiten concesiones. Sin embargo, nuestra conciencia cristiana debe formarse a la luz de todo el Evangelio, y no solamente de aquellas enseñanzas que coinciden con nuestras preferencias políticas.

Al prepararnos para votar, los invito a examinar cuidadosamente las posiciones y los antecedentes de los candidatos, considerar las consecuencias de sus propuestas y reflexionar en oración sobre algunas preguntas:

- ¿Permito que mi fe oriente mis decisiones políticas, o dejo que mis preferencias políticas condicionen mi manera de comprender la fe?
- ¿Cómo afectarán mis decisiones a las personas más vulnerables?
- ¿Busco sinceramente el bien común, o simplemente aquello que me beneficia a mí o a mi propio grupo?

Ningún partido político representa plenamente el Evangelio, y ningún candidato merece nuestra lealtad incondicional. La Iglesia no nos dice a qué partido debemos apoyar, sino que nos invita a formar nuestra conciencia y actuar con sabiduría e integridad.

Podemos llegar a conclusiones diferentes sobre determinadas cuestiones políticas, pero nunca debemos permitir que esas diferencias destruyan nuestra unidad como hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

Al acercarse el día de las elecciones, pidamos a Dios sabiduría para discernir, valentía para defender lo que es justo y humildad para reconocer que también nuestras propias convicciones necesitan dejarse cuestionar por el Evangelio.

Nuestra lealtad última no pertenece a un partido político, sino a Dios. Que nuestras decisiones reflejen esa fidelidad y contribuyan a construir una sociedad donde se respete la vida humana, se promueva la justicia y se busque el bien común.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos.

BETHLEHEM ART OCTOBER 31ST AND NOVEMBER 1st

We will host representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land who will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles. Due to the political conflict and the reduction of tourism, the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive and to keep their faith and Christian presence in the holy land. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for the Lord. Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you. The handcrafted olive religious figurines and articles will be available for purchase after all the weekend Masses.

ARTE DE BELÉN

31 DE OCTUBRE

Y 1 DE NOVIEMBRE

Representantes de la Comunidad Cristiana Católica de Jerusalén y Belén, de Tierra Santa, están aquí para vender sus artículos de madera elaborados a mano. Dicha comunidad depende principalmente de la artesanía religiosa talladas en madera y el turismo. Debido a los conflictos políticos y la falta de turismo muchos de los cristianos se ven obligados a abandonar Tierra Santa. Con la venta de estos artículos religiosos usted ayudará a que sobrevivan y mantengan su comunidad viva. Que sea un reflejo de nuestra fe y amor al Señor. Considere comprar un regalo que será recordado y apreciado por usted o por alguien querido. Las figurillas y artículos religiosos hechos a mano en madera de olivo estarán disponibles para su compra después de todas las Misas.

Assisted suicide denies the dignity of human life.

Intentionally causing the death of an innocent person is morally unacceptable, regardless of the circumstances or the person's condition.

It is our responsibility to be informed on this issue. Archbishop Jeffrey S. Grob encourages all of us to learn more.

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee is offering information and opportunities for reflection, including presentations at parishes. Go to www.archmil.org/love-until-the-last-breath for details.
