THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saturday, November 21 - Blessed Father Solanus Casey holds special significance for St. Felix and the Fort Wayne-South Bend Diocese because he lived for a time at St. Felix Friary in Huntington, Indiana. During his years at St. Felix, Solanus became known for his humble service, deep compassion, and spiritual counsel, touching countless lives through his ministry at the friary door. His presence and witness at St. Felix have left a lasting spiritual legacy in the local Catholic community, inspiring ongoing devotion and encouraging the faithful to embody the virtues of humility, hospitality, and unity that he so beautifully modeled. His example continues to shape the spiritual identity of the Diocese and serves as a reminder of the transforming power of simple, faithful service.

Solanus Casey lived a life marked by simplicity, suffering, and quiet faithfulness. As a Capuchin Franciscan friar, he was ordained a simplex priest and assigned primarily as a porter, welcoming visitors at the monastery door. By the world's standards, his role seemed insignificant. Yet God used that doorway to touch thousands of lives.

Father Solanus Casey instructed the other friars to provide food, famously saying, "They are hungry; get them some soup and sandwiches".

Before the Mass for the Sick and Troubled, soup will be served, followed by Rosary at 12:30 p.m. and Mass at 1:00 p.m.

Forty Hours Devotion: For the Waywardness That Is Ours

In 2024, our diocese participated in the National Eucharistic Revival, during which every parish was encouraged to host a Forty Hours Devotion of Eucharistic Adoration. This devotion has a rich history in the Church and was established in Philadelphia in 1853 by St. John Neumann, the fourth bishop of the Diocese of Philadelphia.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of our lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. It is in the Eucharist that we encounter the Lord Himself, who fulfills His promises and gives Himself to us. We are a Eucharistic people. As we seek to center our discipleship on our Eucharistic Lord, we will prepare for our patronal feast of the Immaculate Conception through a Forty Hours Devotion

I hope to have three adorers present every hour that the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in our main church. We will begin Sunday, December 6, at the conclusion of the 10:30 AM Mass and continue until 10 PM. On Monday, December 7, Adoration will be from 6 AM to 10 PM, and on Tuesday, December 8, from 6 AM until 6 PM, when we will conclude with the celebration of the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.

During these hours of silent prayer and adoration,
there will also be opportunities for communal prayer and worship:

Sunday, December 6

- 11:30 AM – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
- 1 PM – Penance Service
- 6 PM – Vespers and Program
- 6:45 PM – Confessions

Monday, December 7

- 6:45 AM – Lauds (Morning Prayer)
- 6 PM – Vespers and Program
- 6:45 PM – Praise and Worship

Tuesday, December 8

- 6:45 AM – Lauds (Morning Prayer)
- 12:05 PM – Mass
- 6 PM – Mass and conclusion of the Forty Hours Devotion
- 7 PM – Reception

The theme for this year's Forty Hours Devotion is "For the Waywardness That Is Ours." This phrase comes from Preface II of the Sundays in Ordinary Time, which the priest proclaims before the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass:

"For out of compassion for the waywardness that is ours, he humbled himself and was born of the Virgin; by the passion of the Cross he freed us from unending death, and by rising from the dead he gave us life eternal."

This phrase reminds us why the Son of God came into the world. He came because of our waywardness. He came because we have wandered from God, because sin has wounded our relationship with Him, and because we cannot save ourselves. Out of compassion for us, the Son of God humbled Himself, was born of the Virgin Mary, and gave Himself for our salvation.

As we prepare our hearts for Christmas, we must not lose sight of the reason Christ came. If our sense of sin escapes us, then our devotion to our Lord will be emptied of its passion. The more we recognize our need for His mercy, the more deeply we can appreciate the gift of His presence among us in the Eucharist.

This is what make these forty hours so important. We come to adore Him, to see His mercy, to give Him our burdens, and to renew our love for Him. Let us make these hours an opportunity to return to the One who came to save us.

Kingdom Builders

Kingdom Builders is a Catholic ministry founded by Mary Jo Parrish that inspires women to discover their unique God-given design through laughter, learning, and a deeper love of the Father. The ministry encourages women to grow in faith and discover a path to greater peace and joy amid the busyness and demands of everyday life.

This ministry blends Scripture, prayer, and personal planning to help women grow in faith, peace, and joy, while building God's Kingdom in their everyday lives.

Through inspiring and humorous lessons drawn from the month's Sunday Scripture readings, women deepen their understanding of God's Word, strengthen their relationship with Him, and grow in faith. Each lesson offers practical ways to apply Scripture to everyday life, encouraging women to grow spiritually and become more aware of God's presence in their daily journey.

Through Eucharistic Adoration, accompanied by worship music and contemplative silence, Kingdom Builders experience a time of spiritual renewal as they rest in the loving presence of Jesus. This sacred time allows women to quiet their hearts, deepen their relationship with Christ, and be refreshed in His love, finding renewed peace, joy, and strength to carry into their daily lives.

At ICC, Kingdom Builders gather monthly as a group to foster a deeper sense of community and spiritual renewal. This ministry is led by women of our parish, for all women, providing a welcoming space to grow in faith and support one another on our spiritual journeys.

Each 90-minute gathering is divided into two 45-minute segments. One focuses on an inspiring Scripture-based teaching that encourages spiritual growth. The other offers time for Eucharistic Adoration, where women can rest in the presence of Jesus.

Curious about Kingdom Builders? All women are invited to come and experience the joy of growing in faith together!

YOU WERE MADE FOR Peace & Joy

Join us at our next gathering on:

Thursday, November 19th
6:30 - 8:00 at ICC

Together, we support and encourage one another on our journey to become the woman God created us to be.

Blessings and heartfelt thanks to Father Jake and the ICC community for your guidance, kindness, and unwavering support. Your impact is truly appreciated.
