7th Grade WEEKLY Newsletter

WEEK OF: November 16-20

literacy

We read and annotated an example personal narrative before brainstorming and planning for our own story about a significant life memory. Today, we practiced writing different narrative leads.
Students received their graded realistic fiction unit projects. Revisions are due Monday.

art

We began practicing oil pastel techniques in preparation for our next project: Oil Pastel Hot Cocoa Art.

Teacher note

So far, four students have met their November reading goals. Please continue to encourage your child to read at least 20 minutes each night. The last day to take quizzes will be 11/30.

There will be no newsletter next week due to the short week. I hope you and your family have a safe and fun Thanksgiving weekend!
