Pastor's Notes:

Please pray for the Pope's Intention for the month of November: For the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less. Priest Day Intention: Pray for all deceased priests and religious.

If you have people you wish to remember especially during this month of the Poor Souls, you are invited to write their names in the notebook on the table in the back of church. We will keep this notebook by the altar during the coming month.

Today is the day when we gain an extra hour as we "fall back."

We will be having a special celebration this coming Saturday as 26 young men and women experience what the 120 disciples (Mary, the Apostles and others) experienced on Pentecost Sunday—the coming in power of the Holy Spirit and the "sealing" of their baptismal faith. We are happy to welcome our bishop, Bishop James Conley, one of the successors of the Apostles, as he comes to confer this sacrament. The Mass will be at 2 P.M. Saturday—we still have our First Saturday Mass at 7:30 A.M., confessions from 3:30-4:30, and our evening Mass of anticipation (for Sunday) at 5 P.M. Special thanks to our confirmation teacher, Janet Cornwell, to Miranda Teel, our religious education director, to regular teachers Julie Ellis, Doug Cure, and Miranda Teel, and to all of our other wonderful educators, and especially our parents, the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith. The practice is scheduled for 6 P.M. on Thursday evening, and since the Bishop would like to meet with the confirmandi before Mass, they should be there no later than 1:15 on Saturday in the hall. Thanks to the Altar Society for providing refreshments afterwards (no meal, because of the time of day). God bless!

Did you know that the first real estate owned by the Church was not church buildings (for public practice of the Mass was forbidden by the pagan Romans), but cemeteries? Pope St. Callistus I (d. 222 A.D., feast day October 14), a former slave, probably had the care of the first one in the capital city of Rome, during a time between major persecutions. That cemetery (although confiscated during later persecutions) is still there now, under the care of the Holy Father. Our Indianola Catholic cemetery is lovingly cared for by Mike and Millie Cuellar, Zach Hueftle, and Dale Stritt, among many others, as it has been for nearly a century and a half. The seedbed of the future in the hope of the resurrection of the body!
