Pastor's Notes:

Parish council members please note that we have a meeting scheduled next Sunday (November 15) at 6 P.M. in the rectory.

The priests in the area are scheduled to be in Seward on Tuesday for a Study Day. At the time of writing this, I did not know who was the "stay behind" priest for emergencies in the deanery, but if there should be a need, the best place to find one would be at St. Patrick's in McCook—there should be someone in the office to help find one.

Thanks to all who took part in the great exercise of a free people in our Republic. Whether your candidates won or lost, if you voted, you are a winner! If there is a problem in our government, you have only to look in a mirror to see who is responsible (along with your fellow citizens, of course). In the New Testament, St. Paul asked for prayers for the emperor. We do not have an empire, so pray for your fellow citizens and all elected leaders, whether they are your "tribe" or the other one. I personally have always considered the right to vote a privilege, won by brave Americans before me, and have exercised it proudly since 1972. God bless us all!

Bishop Conley has a very heavy schedule this weekend "out west" and we were happy to have him confirm 26 young men and women on Saturday afternoon. Thanks to our wonderful teachers, parents, sponsors and, of course, students—to Debbie Dolan for the music, to the Altar Society members who hosted the reception, and to our faithful servers, acolytes, and lectors. The liturgy is indeed the "work of the people," their prayer with Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church, as He works through the bishop and those gathered with Him to offer the unbloody re-presentation of the Sacrifice of Calvary which won us our Redemption. We thank the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and unto the ages of ages. Amen. Holy Spirit, make us true disciples of the Lord!

Bishop Fulton Sheen was recently beatified—he is now Blessed Fulton Sheen. May he be an inspiration to all of us, especially in the United States, to work diligently at becoming disciples and making others into disciples of the Lord. Bishop Sheen was a prominent television evangelist and died in 1979. Pray for us!
