PANELIST
Dr. Villo' Fiddler, PharmD
Community Pharmacist & Public Health Advocate

Dr. Villo' Fiddler is a community pharmacist based in Paterson, New Jersey, dedicated to expanding access to healthcare and strengthening public health outreach in underserved communities. A graduate of Touro College of Pharmacy, she combines clinical expertise with a passion for community engagement and health education. She serves as Co-Chair of the Community Action Network of the Alzheimer's Association, New Jersey Chapter, supporting awareness, advocacy, and resources for affected individuals and families.

An entrepreneur and founder of Urbane Swank, Dr. Fiddler also creates spaces that promote women's wellness and empowerment. Her work reflects a commitment to meeting communities where they are and removing barriers to care.