A Message from Our Founder

Endurance, Stewardship & The Path Forward

At Castello di Amorosa, every stone, every vintage, and every heartfelt story reflect a dream, decades in the making. Dario Sattui reflects on his inspiring vision.

REFLECTIONS FROM OUR FOUNDER

Fifty-four years ago, I began a journey inspired by a dream, to reopen my great-grandfather's winery, V. Sattui Winery. In 1994 I decided to build Castello di Amorosa. It took nearly fifteen years to build the authentic castle. What started as a vision to create extraordinary wines and honor the beauty and traditions of Italy became something far greater than I could have imagined.

Today, as I reflect on that journey, three themes come to mind: endurance, stewardship, and the path forward.

Endurance is woven into every stone of this castle. Building Castello di Amorosa required patience, determination, and an unwavering belief in a vision many thought impossible. Through changing markets, economic cycles, and countless challenges, our commitment has remained the same: crafting exceptional wines at fair prices and creating memorable experiences that stand the test of time.

Stewardship means caring for something greater than ourselves. Castello di Amorosa is not only a winery, but a testament to craftsmanship, history, and community.

That responsibility extends beyond the castle walls to the vineyards, forests, and agricultural lands that make Napa Valley so special. Preserving these lands for future generations has long been one of my deepest commitments and continues to guide the decisions I make today.

The 2026 harvest was the earliest I can remember, and it was also the lightest crop we have picked. We expect to finish harvest the week of September 25.

The path forward is not about changing who we are, but about remaining true to the values that brought us here: respect for the land, dedication to quality, and a commitment to sharing extraordinary wines and experiences with those who visit the castle.

To our members, guests, friends, and supporters, thank you for your loyalty and encouragement throughout the years.

Together, we will continue honoring this remarkable place and building a legacy that will endure for generations to come.

With gratitude,

Dario Sattui

Before The Bottle, There Is

The Craftsman Behind It

Peter Velleno: Director of Winemaking

For nearly two decades, Peter Velleno has been part of the story of Castello di Amorosa. Now, after 18 years at the winery and more than a decade as Winemaker, he steps into a new role as Director of Winemaking, overseeing the journey of the Castello's wines from grape to bottle.

Velleno succeeds legendary winemaker Brooks Painter, who transitioned to Winemaker Emeritus and Consultant.

"Peter has demonstrated an extraordinary dedication to his craft and a profound understanding of our unique terroir," said Georg Salzner, President of Castello di Amorosa. "His ability to craft wines at the highest expression of winemaking is unparalleled, especially evident in our stable of proprietary and single-vineyard Cabernets that consistently garner exceptional scores. We are confident that under his leadership, the Castello will continue to set the standard for excellence in Napa Valley."

2021 Rapp Ranch, Cabernet Sauvignon

95 95 POINTS
Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Independent

Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon Rapp Ranch Vineyard needs a swirl or two to bring out fragrant notions of Morello cherries, black raspberries, blackcurrant pastilles, and licorice followed by hints of cedar and graphite.

95+ 95+ POINTS
Jeb Dunnuck

The 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon Rapp Ranch Vineyard comes from a site in Coombsville and spent 20 months in barrel. It has a cooler, more lifted style in its red and blue fruits as well as sappy herbs, flowers, and sagebrush-like aromas and flavors.

"I don't know many winemakers in Napa Valley who enjoy as much freedom as I do at Castello di Amorosa. From sourcing exceptional fruit to experimenting with new winemaking styles, innovation has always been encouraged here. The best part is sharing our latest creations with our club members and hearing that they love the wines just as much as I do!"

- Peter Velleno, Director of Winemaking

2023 Chardonnay Reserve, Napa Valley

93 93 POINTS
Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Palate

The 2023 Chardonnay Reserve comes barreling out with intense notes of apple pie and poached pears, leading to hints of cedar chest, allspice, candied ginger, and brioche. The full-bodied palate has a decadent oily suggestion to the texture, offset by plenty of freshness and delivering bags of orchard fruit flavors, finishing long and spicy.

2022 Morisoli-Borges, Cabernet Sauvignon

94 94 POINTS
Jeb Dunnuck

Based on pure Cabernet Sauvignon aged 22 months in French oak, the 2022 Cabernet Sauvignon Morisoli-Borges Vineyard offers dark cherries, currants, savory herbs, spice, and baking chocolate. Rich and medium to full-bodied on the palate, it's round and supple, with sweet tannins, beautiful balance, and a great finish. Enjoy this beauty over the coming decade.

The Languages of the Castle

For 19 Years, One Castle Has Welcomed The World

Every day, guests from around the world drive through the gates of Castello di Amorosa. What many don't realize is that behind those gates, the world has already arrived.

Since opening our doors 19 years ago, more than twenty languages have been spoken by the people who bring the Castello experience to life. Our team includes local Napa Valley residents, international interns, wine professionals, and hospitality ambassadors who have traveled thousands of miles to share their cultures, stories, and passion for wine.

From Italy and France to Brazil, Austria, Argentina, China, India, Japan, Germany, Mexico, Denmark, Georgia, Russia, Poland, Spain, Kazakhstan, Portugal, and beyond, each season brings new voices and new friendship to the castle.

Behind the Castle Walls

Meet Emilio

Delivering a Piece of the Castle

While most guests spend their visit exploring the castle's halls, hidden just beyond its walls is another building that's essential to bringing the Castello di Amorosa experience to life.

Known as the Farmhouse, this behind-the-scenes hub is home to our administrative offices, bottling line and shipping warehouse. It's here that every shipping order, wine club shipment, and corporate gift begins its journey before making its way to homes across the country.

At the heart of it all is Emilio, our shipping manager.

For the past 9 years, Emilio has been the driving force behind the movement of thousands of bottles each month. From coordinating shipments and managing inventory to restocking supplies and organizing carrier pickups, he ensures every order leaves the castle safely, efficiently, and with the same level of care that goes into crafting our wines.

"Our job isn't just to ship wine, it's to help our guests bring a little piece of Castello di Amorosa home. Every package becomes part of a celebration, a dinner with friends, or a special memory shared with family. Knowing we help make those moments, makes every shipment important."

— Emilio, Shipping Manager

The Journey Begins with a Bottle

ESTATE VINEYARDS

Every bottle begins with grapes grown and carefully tended in our vineyards!

CRAFTED & BOTTLED

Our winemaking team crafts, bottles, and prepares each vintage with care.

PACKED WITH CARE

Emilio and the shipping team carefully prepare every order for its journey, while weather conditions are monitored for delivery.

SHARED WITH FAMILY & FRIENDS

Every bottle becomes part of a celebration, a family dinner, or a memory shared with friends.

Christmas is the busiest time of year. As holiday gifts and wine club shipments fill the warehouse, the pace quickens and thousands of packages are prepared for delivery. Despite the demanding schedule, Emilio remains a calm and welcoming presence, known throughout the winery for his positive attitude, infectious smile, and willingness to help wherever he's needed.

Every shipment represents more than a purchase, carrying with it the memories of a visit to the castle and the anticipation of sharing those wines with family and friends. The next time a package from Castello di Amorosa arrives at your doorstep, remember that its journey began long before it reached your home. Behind every carefully packed box is Emilio and a dedicated team whose commitment ensures that every bottle arrives ready to become part of your next celebration.

THE COURTYARD

Look closely at the courtyard walls and you'll discover different styles of stonework, reflecting the evolving architecture of medieval Tuscany across the centuries.

THE CHAPEL

In the medieval ages, the Chapel was often one of the first structures built and was an essential part of any Castle.

"Architecture was never decoration — it was defense, engineering, and artistry combined."

From hand-hewn stone to hidden passageways, every corner of the Castello invites you to step back in time.

THE GREAT HALL

Modeled after medieval banqueting halls, this dramatic space features soaring ceilings, traditional frescoed walls and hand painted ceilings, and a massive fireplace.

THE DUNGEON, ARMORY & WINE CELLARS

Venture deep beneath the Castello to discover the Dungeon, medieval Armory, and barrel-lined wine cellars. Naturally cool underground, the cellars provide ideal conditions for aging wine, just as they did centuries ago.

Fabio Sanzogni & the Frescoes of Italy

The Inspired Masterpieces of Castello

In 1992, Fabio Sanzogni came to San Francisco and established Studio d'Arte, where his path crossed with Dario Sattui. When Dario met Fabio, he found an artist who understood not only how to paint, but how to bring an entire historical world to life. Together with his brother Elio, Fabio would eventually spend more than 18 months transforming the walls of the Great Hall into a gallery of medieval Tuscany, drawing inspiration from the celebrated frescoes of Florence and Siena. What began with a meeting in San Francisco became one of the most distinctive artistic collaborations within the Castle, bringing centuries-old Italian stories to life, one fresco at a time.

The Battle of Republic of Siena & England is a replica fresco painted by the Sanzogni brothers, Fabio & Elio. The Battle itself took place outside Siena in the 14th century. The original fresco is in the town hall of Siena, Italy.

PROTECT NASH CREEK

A Shared Responsibility, A Cleaner Future

AT CASTELLO DI AMOROSA, SUSTAINABILITY ISN'T A TREND, IT'S A PROMISE TO PROTECT THE LAND, OUR WATER, AND THE NAPA VALLEY COMMUNITY FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

In collaboration with Water Audit California, Castello has begun the study of Nash Creek, a significant tributary of the upper Napa River. Historically, the Napa River watershed has supported thousands of steelhead trout, Chinook and Coho salmon, but their numbers have been greatly diminished in the last century. The first phase of the project has already begun, with the integration of monitoring equipment to future habitat restoration and water utilization.

"Our responsibility extends beyond growing grapes. We are caretakers of this land; we have an opportunity to help restore an important piece of Napa Valley's natural ecosystem and we're proud to partner with Water Audit California on this effort."

– President, Georg Salzner
