THEME: CONVENANTED TO WORSHIP, WITNESS AND WORK

ALL SAINTS' DAY
NOVEMBER 1, 2026

Fellow Saints

The Church celebrates All Saints' Day on November 1 each year. All Saints' Day joyfully celebrates faithful disciples who have died in Christ and now share the fullness of his glory. The text for this Feast Day, Matthew 5: 1-12, describes the way of life for discipleship, the culmination of faithful living, and what it means to bear fruit in a world of doubt and prepare for the kingdom of Heaven.

The Kingdom of Heaven, as Jesus proclaimed, cannot be described in terms of geography or sociology; it rests on the transformation of human hearts. It turns traditional ways of thinking upside down because it requires obedience to norms of conduct and attitudes that conflict with how people usually approach life. It calls for a radical approach because it replaces self-interest, pride, vindictiveness, hate, and arrogance with love, humility, righteousness, and meekness. The beatitudes challenge this postmodern age to embrace the core values Jesus articulated for those in his Kingdom who work to demonstrate Kingdom values in every age.

As we approach the end of the year, let me remind us of our responsibility as intentional disciples: go out into the byways and invite others to join us in embracing Kingdom values and experiencing the blessings of being part of the Kingdom Christ came to inaugurate. He is coming! Let us prepare ourselves and others to welcome the Christ by living transformed lives.

Additionally, let us give sacrificially of our treasure to advance the church's mission and support our Mission Share commitments. It is challenging, but God is generous and invites us to give cheerfully.

The Gradual Hymn

Blessed Are the Poor in Spirit

NETTLETON 8.7.8.7 D ("Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing")

Blessed are the poor in spirit; all God's realm is surely theirs.
Those in mourning will find comfort as an answer to their prayers.
Meek ones whom this world despises will inherit everything.
God, your kingdom still surprises; may we seek the reign you bring.

Blessed, too, are those who hunger and who thirst for what is right.
They will not be prone to wander, for your will is their delight.
Those who show God's care and mercy will receive that mercy too.
God, in Christ you show us clearly of the joy we have in you.

Those who share the peace God gives them will find blessings as God's own.
Those oppressed for faithful living will call heaven's kingdom Home.
When the world's ways seem distressing and we feel life's painful sting,
God, remind us of the blessings of the wondrous life you bring.
