DESCRIPTION:

PERMIT SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS:

1. Materials must be dry and reasonably free of dirt.
2. When atmospheric conditions (clearing index of 500 or greater) indicates it is satisfactory to burn. (This information can be obtained through or the National Weather Service Website)
3. Burning shall not be done when atmospheric conditions of local circumstances make such fires hazardous; i.e. high winds, red flag, etc.
4. Burning shall be done at a distance of more than 50 feet from any building, structure, or other combustibles.
5. An adequate water supply or other fire extinguishing equipment shall be available.

6. The burning area shall be constantly attended by a competent person and shall be completely extinguished before being left. All fires shall be completely extinguished before dark.
7. Applicant must be in legal control of the land on which the burning is to take place.
8. Approved fuel breaks shall be established between the controlled burning area and any endangered property. (The width of fuel breaks shall be determined by height, type, and amount of growth, wind conditions, geographical conditions, and type of exposure.)
9. Adjacent neighbors shall be notified prior to burning.
10. Such burning shall not pose a threat to forest, range, or watershed lands.
11. When burning is not on the same day the permit is issued or the permit is for more than one day, notification by applicant to Dispatch is required on each day of burning.

* FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ALL CONDITIONS MAY RESULT IN A CITATION BEING ISSUED TO APPLICANT AND/OR REVOCATION OF THIS PERMIT.

* ABSOLUELY NO BURNING OF TIRES, OILS, TRASH, RUBBISH, PLASTIC PRODUCTS, COATED WIRE, OR BUILDING PRODUCTS. ITEMS NOT GROWN ON THE PROPERTY CANNOT BE BURNED.

A burning permit is subject to the laws of the State of Utah, County laws, and the conditions stated upon or attached to this permit. The County Fire Marshal or Fire Official reserves the right to refuse, revoke, or postpone the permit when the Fire Marshal deems it necessary to prevent danger to life or property. An Open Burning Permit shall give permission to burn only under prescribed conditions. The permit shall in no way relieve any individual from personal liability due to neglect or incompetence. Any person responsible for the existence or spread of fire necessitating suppression action shall be liable for the payment of costs.
