

APONT Aboriginal Governance & Management Program

Our Decisions | Our Actions | Our Future

The Aboriginal Governance and Management Program (AGMP) delivers governance and management support to Aboriginal organisations in remote communities throughout the Northern Territory. The program has operated since 2014 on the principles of empowerment, engagement, learning and adaptation. AGMP understands that strengthening Aboriginal organisations according to their self-determined needs will result in improved outcomes for the communities in which they operate.

ACTIVITIES

OUTCOMES

OBJECTIVES

1. Governance and Management Support

- ◆ Partner with Aboriginal organisations
- ◆ Deliver governance and management capacity strengthening strategies

Strengthened capacity of board management

2. Engagement and liaison and advocacy

- ◆ Engagement with key stakeholders
- ◆ Participate in workshops and forums
- ◆ Advocacy
- ◆ Deliver communications activities & collateral

Increased stabilization of the organisation

Increased sustainability of the organisation

3. Knowledge base

- ◆ Develop and share best practice tools

Improved service delivery and program outcomes

4. Continuous quality improvements

- ◆ Conduct staff reflections meetings AGMP staff planning and review
- ◆ Implement M&E Framework; Complete regular monitoring activities
- ◆ Collect feedback from sites & other stakeholders

Increase in fulfilling the mandate to members and progressing the organisations goals

Increased capability and capacity of Aboriginal organisations in the NT to work effectively and sustainably:

- ◆ to deliver services & jobs
- ◆ develop enterprises and economies
- ◆ build organisational and community capacity
- ◆ reduce disadvantage and promote Aboriginal community well-being.