

Emily Dupre

Managing Director

Emily Dupre is a managing director at MFS Investment Management® (MFS®) Fund Distributors. In this role, she is responsible for delivering MFS practice management solutions to financial advisors, with a specific focus on creating the platinum practice, generational wealth conversations and Social Security planning. She manages a team of wholesalers in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Emily joined MFS in 2004 as an internal sales representative and became a field wholesaler in 2007. She assumed her current role in 2021. Emily has been in the financial services industry since 2004.

Emily earned a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University.