WAYNE RUSSELL

by Lisa Russell

Wayne Jack Russell has always ascribed to the old adage that 10 hats are better than one. He went on to epitomize that philosophy by doing almost every job that there was to be done in the racing industry and then some.

Wayne was born on the racetrack, as he tells it, “I came directly from VGH to a trailer at Hastings, when the races moved from Lansdowne in Richmond during the PNE Fair in August, we always lived in that trailer, it was like a holiday for us.”

He began working in the barn alongside his father, Jackie Russell Jr. as a hotwalker, groom, exercise rider and finally as his dad’s assistant trainer. Unfortunately, that all came to an end when Wayne, then in his early 20’s, stood shoulder to shoulder alongside his dad fighting the infamous barn fire that ravaged Hastings in 1969. Wayne’s father suffered a massive heart attack that night and passed in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.

“He took his last breath at Commercial and Broadway.” said Wayne. He was only 48. Wayne dispersed the stable within a year and moved on to the next chapter in what for most would already be a lived and storied life.

As a young teen Wayne looked after the team of heavy horses who pulled the starting gate into place for his mentor Don McKay. It his first paying job, which started his love affair with the gate where he eventually became the starter pulling triple duty as the paddock judge, and patrol judge at the same time. Let’s just say that he put a lot of miles on his signature cowboy boots in those days.

The Russell’s are the most enduring racetrack family in BC. Dating back to when Wayne’s grandfather, Jackie Russell Sr., who emigrated from Scotland in 1911 and was riding horses.

“I have been so lucky and blessed to have worked in a profession I love, especially with my family involved.” Wayne once told racing writer Randy Goulding.

All six of Wayne’s children have been involved in horse racing in one form or another, as well as many of his grandchildren. Wayne also owned and operated alongside his wife and life partner of 50+ years Barb, Western Thoroughbred I.D. Services. Registering foals in B.C. for the Jockey Club for 14 years. A job that he was uniquely qualified for as a graduate of the International Horse Identification Program at Washington State University Pullman.

After many years in the race office wearing various hats, Wayne began his next chapter in racing as an Auxiliary Steward at Hastings in the year 2000 for the B.C. Racing Commission which was replaced as the governing body for horse racing in the province by GPEB in 2002.

Wayne continued his journey along that path for 20 years where he rose to the lofty position of Sr. Steward (Accredited) for GPEB, the Gaming Policy & Enforcement Division of the Ministry of Finance. Wayne might have summed up his experience as a Steward best when he said, “Our failure to do our job well, is just as serious as the act of a careless jockey.”

“Wayne was perfect for the position,” says Goulding. “He has integrity, and his experience made him extremely capable to judge races fairly, as well as other issues. He was a real asset to the sport.”

Through his many years at racetracks throughout North America from Canada to Mexico, Wayne has always been there for his fellow horsemen. To offer sage advice or lend a helping hand. So, it is an honor to welcome, Wayne Jack Russell, along side his father, the late Jackie Russell Jr. (1988 inductee), to the BC Horse Racing Hall of Fame. Your friends and family couldn’t be prouder!

HERE'S HANNAH

by Wendy Long

Tenacity. Versatility. Longevity.

Trainers and owners covet such a rare combination of traits in a racehorse. Yet Here's Hannah had it all and more in a five-year career that saw her win 15 of 21 career starts for earnings of $577,950. It is no wonder with such a record the feisty chestnut mare has justifiably earned her place in the British Columbia Racing Hall of Fame.

Her tenacity was evident long before she ran her first race.

"She was a tough little thing as a foal," recalls Pat Bennett, who with Brenda Combs as BC Stables bred and raced the daughter of Numaany out of Dreams Start Here (by A Fleets Dancer). "She wanted her own way all the time. She took us on quite a journey, a once-in-a-lifetime journey."

That journey began in earnest when she came to trainer John Morrison, who recognized early on the filly had a future.

"We were high on her right from the start," he says. "She trained hard, she had beautiful action and she was a good-sized filly. She was a handful, she had a very aggressive attitude. When she trained she trained really hard, and that was the way she ran in the afternoon. She was full of herself all the time."

Here's Hannah broke her maiden at first asking on Aug. 25, 2017, going wire-to-wire in a two-year-old Maiden Special Weight race over six furlongs at Hastings. She would go on to win the Sadie Diamond Futurity and then stretch out to take the 1 1/16th mile Fantasy, both wins coming in frontrunning fashion.

Her three-year-old campaign began with a win over six furlongs in the 2018 Ross McLeod, and ended with another frontrunning win in the BC Oaks over 1 1/8th miles. With four wins in five starts in 2018, she was named champion BC Bred and Open three-year-old filly in addition to BC Horse of the Year.

Any doubts Morrison might have had about her ability to mature into an outstanding older horse were soon assuaged during that three-year-old campaign.

"When some horses go into their three-year-old year some of them stay the same, they don't progress," he explains. "But she just kept getting stronger and better. We also had pretty good luck with her soundness-wise – she had real strong legs."

Apart from her ability to win at distances from six furlongs to 1 1/8th miles, her versatility was evident in her tractability. As she developed Here's Hannah preferred to be forwardly placed but didn't need the lead. During her career she also won carrying weight from 118 pounds to 129, and lost by a head shouldering 130 in a thrilling finish to the 2019 Delta Colleen. Her wins also came on both dry and wet tracks.

"She had great tactical speed, and a great finishing kick that was quite amazing," enthuses jockey Richard Hamel, who was astride the daughter of Numaany for 12 of her 15 career wins. "She would run past horses so easily. She had so much talent. But if the speed wanted to get too fast I could sit her off it, she let me take her back a bit and let the speed go one. Then we would get close to them down the backside and run them down."

The 2019 loss in the Delta Colleen was the only blemish in six starts for the popular mare. She won the Grade 3 Ballerina and was honoured with a 2019 Sovereign Award as Canada's Champion Older Mare – a distinct laurel for a BC-bred.

Here's Hannah retired after the 2021 racing season, notching an enviable 15-2-3 record over 21 starts that spanned five years. Trainer Morrison concedes managing a horse with such a hard driving persona required a thoughtful and tactful approach from trainer, exercise rider and jockey.

"She was all business," he says. "She was touchy, if you touched her the wrong way she would kick out at you. And she didn't like you messing around too much, you did what you had to do with her and then she wanted you to leave her alone."

Hamel agrees his mount at times required some astute handling.

"A lot of effort went in to that mare," he says, noting exercise rider Angie Smith and pony partner Cindy Barroby were crucial in the daily routine of getting her on and off the racetrack. "Mares are sometimes difficult because they can get temperamental. She had a good team with her and her attitude was catered to. That contributed to her longevity."

TERRY JORDAN

by Greg Douglas - Dr. Sport

After a short delay in early February for the horses to begin prepping for the 2025 racing season at Hastings, veteran trainer Terry Jordan was one of the first in line to surface in the backstretch.

"I just couldn't wait," the 83-year-old cancer survivor says. "It's what keeps me going."

It was never a case of strictly smooth sailing in life's journey for the kid raised by his grandparents on East Pender Street in Vancouver. But the eventual destination ended up being worthwhile.

"Having been named to the BC Horse Racing Hall of Fame is a real honour," Jordan says. "I've enjoyed a great career and have so many people to thank."

At the top of that list is his partner Anita Bolton, a successful Hastings trainer in her own right who finished her career with 90 wins. "She completely took over my barn when I was diagnosed with colon cancer five years ago," Jordan says. "I don't have the words to describe how supportive she's been. It took me quite a while to get my oars back in the water and it wouldn't have happened without Anita."

Bolton says that while she is not involved in the racing industry at this time, she does visit the track occasionally during morning workouts. "My official role now" she jokes, "is to send Terry to the barn with baked goods."

Anita remains an early-riser in her dream profession as a pastry chef at The Bakehouse in West Vancouver's Dundarave Village.

Terry's background in racing resembles a story right out of a Mickey Rooney Hollywood movie script. He first visited a racetrack at age 11 with a childhood buddy whose parents had horses running at Hastings. A few years later he left BC for California to find work at Bay Meadows.

By the age of 16 he had acquired his trainers' licence and from that day forward his career extended to heights even he didn't imagine possible.

His trainer profile on Equibase shows 1,900 career starts with 547 wins and earnings just shy of $12.2 million. Unfortunately, those records only go back to 1994. They don't include Jordan having a lifetime win percentage of 29, a number he wears with great pride.

Over the span of his career, five horses trained by Jordan won Sovereign Awards for being the best of their respective divisions in Canada. Terry himself has been a Sovereign Award finalist for Outstanding Trainer in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

Jordan heads into the 2025 season at Hastings with three horses including 2023 BC Premiers Handicap winner Sunbird owned by Pauline Felicella and the Estate of Nick Felicella. Sunbird finished second in last year's Grade 3 $100,000 Premiers Handicap. His other horse of note is Broke an Broken, a six-year-old gelding with 28 career starts and seven wins owned by James Redekop and Stefan Ferrario.

"We only won four races in 2024 but we had 10 or 11 second-place finishes," Terry says with a mischievous grin. "The fact we're always close keeps me going. It's around this time of the year with a new racing season on the horizon that I seem to come to life."

An all-time favourite Terry Jordan story developed during his winter vacation to Acapulco in 2006. He drove to Mexico City for a few days and discovered an apprentice jockey by the name of Mario Gutierrez riding at Hipodromo de Las Americas.

Mario grew up in the small town of El Higo, 400 kilometres north of Mexico City. At 14, he was riding quarter horses and sleeping in a tack room on the backstretch.

"The youngster had just two lifetime wins and couldn't speak a word of English," Jordan says. "There was something about him that made me think he had a great future."

Terry tipped off his friend and highly-respected agent Wayne Snow, who cleared the way for Mario to arrive at Hastings when he was 16. From there, Snow hooked him up with the legendary team of owner Glen Todd and trainer Troy Taylor.

Gutierrez became an international sensation in 2012 by winning the Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes, falling short of becoming the first Triple Crown winner in 34 years when his horse I'll Have Another was scratched due to tendonitis issues the day before the Belmont Stakes.

He won a second Kentucky Derby aboard Nyquist in 2016 and frequently returned to ride at Hastings from the California circuit in an expression of love and respect for those who unselfishly set his career in motion.

It would not have happened without Terry Jordan.

In 1973 the Board of Directors of the British Columbia Thoroughbred Breeders' Society (B.C.T.B.S.) decided to establish the Appleby trophy to honour annually the breeder of the best horse bred in the province, regardless of where it had raced. It differs in several respects from the Vanderbilt trophy, which was inaugurated in 1965 and which honours the Horse of the Year at Hastings Park, then Exhibition Park. First, of course, it is restricted to horses bred in British Columbia; secondly, there is no requirement that the horse have run locally, though, of course, they have usually done so; and, thirdly, it was the breeder of the horse in question who received the trophy. (The owner of the Vanderbilt winner receives that trophy and in recent years the owner of the leading B.C.-bred has been presented the Appleby trophy.) Lyon H. Appleby was a distinguished Vancouver surgeon who was instrumental in founding the B.C. Racing Breeders' Society in 1938, and became its first president. The name of the organization was subsequently changed to the B.C. Thoroughbred Breeders' Society and, later still, to its present name, the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (B.C. Division). Dr. Appleby bred many fine runners at his Running Horse Ranch near Kamloops and most raced in his colours including Cum Laude, who would undoubtedly have won for Dr. Appleby the trophy later established in his honour.

AVANA...Open & BC Horse of the Year, Champion 3-year-old filly BC Bred and Open Division, Champion Sprinter

Avana showed a lot of promise when she debuted at Del Mar as a 2-year-old and lived up to it with an undefeated record in Canada as a sophomore for trainer Barbara Anderson-Heads. With Amadeo Perez in the irons, the British-Columbia-bred daughter of Vino Rosso dominated her opponents in all five of her races at Hastings and despite stumbling at the start, she drew off to win for fun in the Century Casino Oaks at Century Mile in Edmonton. Avana was last early before mowing down her opposition in all of her routes but showed good speed in both of her victories sprinting. Her powerful performance in the River Rock Casino helped sway the voters in naming her Champion Sprinter. Out of Revealing Moment, Avana was bred by Bryan and Carol Anderson and races for Peter Redekop. She has been training forwardly while preparing for her 4-year-old campaign.

APPREHEND...Champion Older Male

After not racing in 2023 Apprehend came back with a vengeance, winning four of his five races in 2024 including an impressive victory over Sunbird in the Grade 3 Premier's Handicap. With Amadeo Perez riding for trainer Barbara-Anderson Heads and owner Peter Redekop, the Kentucky-bred son of Arrogate showed his versatility by coming from last to first going a mile in an allowance race at Century Mile before forcing the issue in back-to-back victories at Hastings in the S. W. Randall Plate and the Premier's. Out of the Street Hero mare Hero's Amor, Apprehend was purchased for $185,000 out of the Ocala Breeder's Horses of Racing Age Sale in 2021. He has compiled a 7-3-0 record from 14 starts for earnings of $313,700.

AWARDS & HONOURS

LUCKY FORCE...Champion older BC-bred male, Upper-Level Claimer of the Year (over $15,000) Tied with Bold Arch.

Trained by Craig MacPherson, Lucky Force started out 2024 with a victory in a $25,000 claimer and knocked off two wins in high level optional claimers before taking home the CTHS Sales Stakes. The son of Counterforce out of Check Point, won going long and short and he knows. He is owned by Edwin Claggett who purchased him for $4,000 out of the 2021 CTHS Mixed Sale. A bargain, considering Lucky Force has earned $154,130 with nine career wins from 16 starts.

INFINITE PATIENCE...Champion Older Filly or Mare BC Bred and Open Division

Simply said, Infinite Patience ranks as one of the best BC-bred horses ever. She came a nose short of being the all-time leading money earner in the province, with her $928,700 in earnings just shy of Spaghetti Mouse's $929,850. In her swan song the daughter of Sungold showed her class in winning the Grade 3 Ballerina. After breaking poorly and then forcing an honest pace, she was headed in the stretch by Bunny but came back to win the 1 1/8 miles race by a head. A fitting way for her to end her career for trainer Barbara Anderson-Heads, owners William Decoursey and Ryan Nugent-Hopkins. Out of Montero, Infinite Patience was bred by Decoursey.

BAKKEN ...Champion Sire, Champion Juvenile Sire

For the third time and second straight year, Bakken was the leading sire in the province. By the leading sire Distorted Humor, Bakken topped the BC standings in 2024 earnings and winners, with his 36 runners winning 27 races and close to a million Canadian dollars in purses. It was the first time Bakken was the Leading Juvenile Sire which was mostly due to his being responsible for the region's leading 2-year-old at Hastings last season in Mount Doom, $141,000 in earnings, as well as one of the top juvenile fillies in Breezin Brianne.

AWARDS & HONOURS

AUGUST RAIN...Champion 3-year-old Male B.C. Bred & Open Division

August Rain added to what was a banner night at the annual CTHS Awards dinner for the team of owner Peter Redekop, trainer Barbara Anderson-Heads and jockey Amadeo Perez. The homebred son of Sungold closed out his sophomore season with overpowering victories in the Grade 3 Canadian Derby at Century Mile and the Grade 3 British Columbia Derby at Hastings. In both races he was well-back early before unleashing his patented late kick to win going away. Out of Bitatude, August Rain won four of his seven starts in 2024 for earnings of $256,150. At the dinner Redekop said he didn't know that he was the breeder of August Rain until his racing manager, Bryan Anderson told him. Talk about nice surprises.

MOUNT DOOM...Champion Two-Year-Old Male, B.C. Bred & Open Divisions

Mount Doom showed a ton of potential when he finished second to multiple stakes winner Breezin Brianne in his debut and then completely dominated his rivals for the rest of the year. The son of Bakken out of A Song For Arbonne used his excellent speed to win four straight stakes and displayed plenty of stamina by closing out his campaign with a romp going around three turns in the Ascot Graduation. He is owned by Willow Creek Farms and Lorie Henson, trained by Steve Henson, and Antonio Reyes was aboard for all of his races. Mount Doom was bred by William George Stewart.

SOMEDAY LADY...Champion Two-Year-Old Filly, B.C. Bred & Open Divisions

Someday Lady took a couple of races to figure things out, but once she did, she was unstoppable with sharp wins in the Sadie Diamond Futurity and Fantasy. With Kherron Khelawan riding for trainer Cindy Krasner, Someday Lady came from a stalking position to win the Futurity going away and dueled early before pulling away from her rivals in the 1 1/16 miles Fantasy. Bred by Helen Klimes and Willow Creek Farm, Someday Lady is a daughter of Cairo Prince out of the Storm Victory mare Tessana. With her versatility, she figures to be a major force in the three-year-old division in Western Canada this year.

AWARDS & HONOURS

BOLD ARCH...Upper-Level Claimer of the Year (over $15,000) Tied with Lucky Force

Trained by John Morrisson, Bold Arch used his class and speed to win three of his five starts at Hastings in 2024 and retained his title as the Upper Level Claimer of the Year. Bold Arch has just one way of going and if he breaks on top, he is a hard horse to catch. He was an easy winner of his 2024 debut in a $32,000 optional claimer and after setting the pace before fading in the Lieutenant Governor's he won back-to-back sprints. In what may have been his best race, he held on well to finish second to Sunbird going 1 1/16 miles in an open allowance race. By Archarcharch out of Daylight Gal, Bold Arch was bred by J. Barry Doud. His owners John and Kim Morrison, and Rob Sadler are looking forward to seeing him race again this year.

QUEEN OF ATTITUDE...Lower Claimer of the Year (Under $15,000)

They just don't come any more honest than Queen of Attitude who from 24 lifetime starts has finished in the top three 21 times, with 12 victories and six seconds. In 2024 the daughter of Bakken out of Deputy Princess won six of her eight starts for trainer Steve Henson who has trained her throughout her career. She started her season with a runner-up finish for $8,000 and then reeled off four wins before finishing fourth for $8,000. She is an exciting horse to watch as she usually breaks a step slow, trails the field, and finishes with a rush. She is owned by her breeder, Helen Klimes and Lorie Henson. At the Annual Awards Dinner Steve Henson said "She's the reason I get up every morning. She is something special."

REVEALING MOMENT...Broodmare of the Year

Bred in Kentucky by Pam and Martin Wygod, Revealing Moment was an honest runner, winning four of her 17 starts for earnings of $127,073. More importantly, she is a half-sister to Belle Gallentey who raced at Hastings and went on to become a multiple Grade 1 winner with earnings of $1,134,645. From seven foals Revealing Moment has had two winners, but both can run a bit, especially Avana who we all know about as the 2024 Horse of the Year in British Columbia. Avana was bred by Bryan and Carol Anderson. The other winner out of Revealing Moment, also bred by the Andersons, is Escapologist who is a four-time winner with $388,797 in earnings. In 2024 the son of Good Magic won a $75,000 optional claiming race at Oaklawn that carried a $150,000 purse. Bryan and Carol bought Revealing Moment when she was in foal with Escapologist. After being foaled in Kentucky, Escapologist was sold as a weanling.

AWARDS & HONOURS

BRYAN AND CAROL ANDERSON...Leading Breeder

Led by Avana, Bryan and Carol Anderson were the leading Breeder's for the second time, the first in 2007. In 2005 they received the TOBA Award in the United States for being the best Breeder in Canada. Besides Avana and Escapologist, $148,100 in 2024, the classy At Attention won the Lieutenant Governor's and the $52,600 the son of Shanghai Bobby earned last year brought his lifetime earnings to $527,660. "It was a nice year mostly because of Avana," said Bryan. "It was also fun seeing At Attention win another stakes race,"

Equine Insurance Trophy for the 2024 Sadie Diamond Futurity

Winner: SOMEDAY LADY

Breeder: Helen Klimes and Willow Creek Farms

Someday Lady was impressive breaking her maiden in the Sadie Diamond Futurity in her third start and proved it was no fluke with a dominating performance in the Fantasy. Out of Tessanna, who did not win, but the daughter of Storm Victory showed some potential with a couple of runner-up finishes in five starts. Tessanna is out of North by South, who was a stakes winner as a 3-year-old. Everyone was happy when Someday Lady was bought by Jeffrey Sangara for $30,000 at the 2023 CTHS Sale. Congratulations to Helen Klimes and Willow Creek Farms for breeding such an outstanding filly.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Marsh and McLennan Trophy for the Breeder of the Jack Diamond Futurity

Winner: MOUNT DOOM

Breeder: William George Stewart

Named after a fictional volcano in the Lord of Rings, Mount Doom exploded on the scene with extreme speed and showed he could carry it a middle distance when he completely dominated the 1 1/16 miles Ascot Graduation. He was purchased for $21,000 at the 2023 CTHS Mixed Sale and he has proved to be a bargain with $141,000 in earnings and counting. His dam, also bred by Stewart, formerly Black Canyon Thoroughbreds. Ltd, won a maiden race at Woodbine and is also the mother of Mount Asgard who won the 2021 CTHS Sales Stakes. Mount Doom has been working like he's ready to take off from where he left off last fall.

DREW LEVERE...The HBPA Richard Yates Backstretch Award Winner

Drew Levere has been a permanent presence at Hastings since he took his father's advice and 'got a job', rather than continue baffling his teachers at school. He began with Joe Walls back in 1980. Following a broken hip and a healthy appetite ended his short career as a jockey after 20 wins, he joined the track's maintenance crew in the 90s. Drew, who grew up in Vancouver's East End, pours his heart into the horses and is the first on the scene when there is any problem with horse or rider. His expertise in all matters of track management helps to keep the surface safe for all our equine athletes and he deals with the constant stream of track-related queries (some more robustly asked than others) with great patience and, more or less, good humour. It's not unusual to see him riding off the gap one moment, only to turn the corner and bump into him again, this time on yet another horse, or rushing to carry out some of his many duties as Hastings' longstanding track superintendent.

British Columbia Breeders Awards

BREEDERS AWARD PROGRAM

Broodmares - Received 12% BAP Award on 2024 Eligible Earnings

Stallions - Received 7% BAP Award on 2024 Eligible Earnings

It pays to own a BC-bred!

Effective with foals of 2012, to be eligible for Breeders Awards Program "BAP" awards, all horses must be BC-bred, registered with the Jockey Club and with the CTHS National Office prior to the horse running its first race. BC-bred foals prior to 2012 that have or have not been racing and are not Canadian registered will not be eligible to receive BAP awards until all the Canadian requirements have been met. Awards will only be payable effective from the date the horse is registered with the CTHS National Office as a Canadian-bred and will not be paid retroactive.

As of January 1, 2018, all recipients of the BAP awards must be a member of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society for the entire racing year that the awards were earned.

B.C. STALLIONS

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2020 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2023. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

Statistics are provided by THE JOCKEY CLUB INFORMATION SYSTEMS, Lexington, Kentucky.
Earnings are reported in U.S. funds.

British Columbia Sire Records

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2020 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2023. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

The following symbols are used in this section:

W - Winners; PL - Placed; UN - Unplaced;

A plus (+) before the name of the horse indicates the horse won as a two-year-old.

A (SW) before a horse's name indicates that the horse won a stakes race; and (SP) indicates that the horse was second or third in a stakes race.

Earnings are total earnings through December 31, 2020 unless otherwise indicated.

Statistics are provided by THE JOCKEY CLUB INFORMATION SYSTEMS, Lexington, Kentucky. Earnings are reported in U.S. funds
