

Machine Operator 1st, 2nd & 3rd Shift

Pay: $19.17 - $25.97 per hour

Job description:

Summary

At Green Tokai, the Rubber Extrusion Operator and Packer work as a team to turn raw materials into high quality door trunk and hood seals for the automotive industry using a multi-machine, continuous, semi-autonomous process.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Changing tooling and machine settings to setup production.
- Start-up and monitoring the running condition of extrusion line machines.
- Performing quality checks of parts in production including measuring dimensions, and checking for surface defects.
- Learning and adhering to quality standards.
- Keeping accurate production records on PLEX computer system.
- Replenishing source materials as needed.
- Performing other job duties as required.

Qualifications:

Ability to read, write, speak, and understand spoken English. Ability to add, subtract, multiply, and divide in metric and standard units of measurement, using whole numbers, fractions, or decimals. Ability to read and understand bar graphs. Ability to follow multi step processes as outlined in written work instruction, and use critical thinking to apply knowledge for troubleshooting outside of standardized situations.

Physical Demands:

While performing job duties, associates will be regularly required to stand, walk, kneel, and crouch as well as use hands and fingers to feel, reach overhead with hands and arms, lift up to 50 lbs, and push/pull pallet jacks and material containers.

Job Type: Full-time

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- 401(k) matching
- Dental insurance
- Employee assistance program
- Flexible spending account
- Health insurance
- Life insurance
- On-the-job training
- Paid time off
- Prescription drug insurance
- Retirement plan
- Tuition reimbursement
- Vision insurance

Experience:

- Manufacturing: 1 year (Required)

Work Location: In person

Application settings

Application method

- Email

Require resume

- Yes

Application updates

- lklemt@greentokai.com

Candidates contact you (email)

- Yes, at email address provided