

Iowa Volleyball Region – Social Media & Content Creation Internship

Are you passionate about sports, storytelling, and social media? Iowa Volleyball Region is seeking a creative and driven Social Media & Content Creation Intern to help us bring our events and athletes to life across digital platforms. This hands-on role is perfect for a college student or recent grad looking to build their portfolio and gain real-world experience in content marketing, media production, and sports communications.

Position: Social Media & Content Creation Intern

Compensation: Stipend plus travel, meals, and accommodations covered for events

Duration: Internship

Location: Remote + travel to key events

Key Responsibilities:

- Capture and create engaging content (photos, videos, graphics) at Iowa Volleyball Region events
- Cover the Iowa High Performance Camp at Coe College
- Travel to and follow teams during the All-Star Championships in Madison, WI
- Highlight our Beach Tournament Series and Junior Regional Championships
- Create and schedule social media posts across Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, and X
- Share athlete stories, behind-the-scenes moments, and event highlights in real-time
- Collaborate with staff on content strategy and messaging

Ideal Candidate:

- Strong knowledge of major social media platforms
- Comfortable with photography, video recording, and basic editing
- Experience with tools like Canva, CapCut, Adobe Creative Suite, or similar
- Excellent written and visual storytelling skills
- Self-motivated, organized, and confident working independently
- Passion for volleyball and youth sports is a plus
- Must be available to travel to events (expenses covered)
- A successful candidate will need to become a USA Volleyball Member as well as pass a required background check & complete a short training course.

To Apply:

- Please send a brief cover letter, resume, any relevant portfolio pieces (social posts, reels, photos, etc.), and your availability to Molly MacQueeney at Molly@iavbreg.org.

Applications Due September 1st, 2025 at 12:00 pm.

Join us in showcasing the talent, energy, and community that make Iowa Volleyball Region special!