In association with the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage

Our theme for 2025 is 'The People of the Book'

Whether participating online or in person, everyone is welcome to join in with B'nai B'rith UK's Jewish Heritage Days 2025

xx edition 18/07/25

Our programme explores the theme of 'The People of the Book', which lends itself to a huge range of potential events, whether real or virtual. All of these interpretations offer a wealth of opportunities for open days, talks, virtual guided walks and online exhibitions.

UK Organisers: B'nai B'rith UK

B'nai B'rith UK was established in 1910. It is part of an international organisation founded in 1843, which advocates for global Jewry and champions the cause of human rights. B'nai B'rith is active in 59 countries with representation at the UN, UNESCO and the EU.

B'nai B'rith UK is a cross-communal organisation whose aim is to bring Jewish people together to promote tolerance, strengthen the Jewish Community, combat racial and religious prejudice, to help the less fortunate and the disadvantaged.

B'NAI B'RITH UK

Local groups provide innovative cultural, educational and social programmes. These include speaker events, concerts, theatre outings, quizzes, debates, visits to places of interest, walks and trips abroad. These provide a great social network and the opportunity to participate in and support our humanitarian and heritage projects.

BBUK's hugely successful programme of online talks, established at the beginning of lockdown in March 2020, carries on throughout 2025 and continues to attract a large number of attendees around the world. The European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage, run by a team of volunteers, is a mainstay of our calendar.

B'nai B'rith UK's Bureau of International Affairs engages with the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office, the Department for International Development, foreign embassies and NGOs on behalf of Jewish people internationally and to support Israel. More widely, we promote the human rights of minority groups.

We sponsor a Foodbank and Distribution Centre in the southern Israeli development town of Qiryat Gat, plus an after-school activity club for children. We also support a humanitarian medical programme for elderly Jews and righteous gentiles in Kyiv, Ukraine and a shoe programme for a children's orphanage in Odesa, now relocated to Romania because of the war in Ukraine. All the projects are clearly explained on our website www.bnaibrithuk.org

If you wish to donate to our projects by SmartGiving, details are on our website <https://www.bnaibrithuk.org/donate/>, or you can do so by bank transfer using the following details:

European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage

(EDJCH) 2025: UNITED KINGDOM

For this year's heritage activities, B'nai B'rith UK's European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage (EDJCH) team has once again created this online booklet, which will include both in-person and virtual events, talks, open days, exhibitions and guided walks.

Many sites are open to the public in person, while others are also running online events. We are thrilled to have such a large number of organisations, synagogues and walking guides taking part in our heritage activities this year, with some holding more than one event. There is a good mixture of in-person and virtual events, with many venues welcoming visitors in person with open arms.

Initiated by the B'nai B'rith Lodge in Strasbourg, the EDJCH rapidly spread across Europe and celebrated its 25th anniversary in 2024. It is organised by a partnership between B'nai B'rith Europe, the European Council of Jewish Communities and the Spanish Jewry Network and is part of the Council of Europe's project 'Europe - A Common Heritage'. As a result of the EDJCH, the European Route of Jewish Heritage has evolved and is now one of the major cultural routes of Europe.

For 2025, the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage will run from 1st September to 31st December inclusive. The National Heritage Open Days runs from 12th to 21st September this year, which ties in nicely with our own dates.

Our theme for 2025 is 'The People of the Book', which lends itself to a huge range of potential events, whether real or virtual. Some suggestions include:

- The role of the written word in Jewish culture and its broader connections of interfaith dialogue with Christianity and Islam.
- The enduring power of the written and spoken word and their ability to connect us across time and place, serving as bridges between our current lives and the past.
- The breadth of Jewish cultural expression, whether in poetry, art, music, literature, journalism, podcasts, film or theatre.
- How storytelling is woven into the fabric of Jewish identity.
- The richness of the world of words and books, connecting us to the past, guiding us in the present and inspiring us to imagine a more inclusive future.

All of these interpretations offer a wealth of opportunities for open days, talks, virtual guided walks and online exhibitions.

Everyone is Welcome!

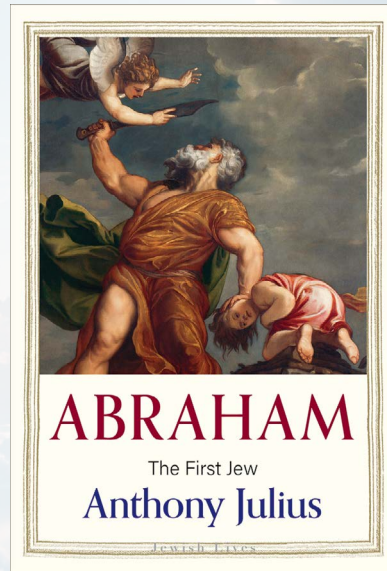

IN CONVERSATION

Abraham as you have never known him

Lawyer and author Anthony Julius in conversation about his new book with Rabbi Michael Pollak

The story of Abraham, The First Jew, portrayed as two lives lived by one person, paralleling the contradictions in Judaism throughout its history.

In this new biography of Abraham - Judaism's foundational figure - Anthony Julius offers an account of the origins of a fundamental struggle within Judaism between scepticism and faith, critique and affirmation, thinking for oneself and thinking under the direction of another.

Anthony Julius will sign copies of his book after the event

Sunday 19th October at 7.30pm
£20 Pre-booking required

Refreshments served from 7pm. Venue details given on booking.

Anthony Julius

Deputy Chairman at international law firm Mishcon de Reya and holds the Chair in Law and Arts in the Faculty of Laws, UCL. As a lawyer, he is best known for his successful defence of historian Deborah Lipstadt in the libel case brought by David Irving. As a scholar, he is the author of the widely praised Trials of the Diaspora: A History of Anti-Semitism in England, amongst other books

Rabbi Michael Pollak

Studied at City of London School. Spent three years at the legendary Chevron Yeshiva, Jerusalem and then graduated in Philosophy at the London School of Economics. Consultant in education for the UJIA, London School of Jewish Studies and Partnership for Jewish Schools, whilst teaching Daf Hayomi at the Ner Yisrael Community Centre and Ethics and Religion at Hendon School. Also is Director of Education at Yad Vashem UK.

Advance Praise for "Abraham The First Jew"

"This brilliantly original and often deeply moving book tells the story of Abraham so as to set out a narrative of 'faith' itself—the relation of faith to reason, the abiding tension between claimed conviction and inescapable or tragic questioning, the way in which, like Abraham, we may be both 'residents' and 'aliens' in the world of discourse about God. A unique and searching masterpiece."

Rowan Williams, theologian and poet, University of Cambridge

"Learned, rich in revelation, beautifully articulated and researched. In an age when the phrase 'the Abrahamic religions' is tossed about with ease, it is more than fascinating to follow Anthony Julius's meditations on the man himself."

Stephen Fry, TV presenter, writer, author of Mythos

"Fascinating and profound, scholarly and playful, philosophical and aesthetic, Anthony Julius's Abraham is an original and compelling hybrid that brings Abraham to life and through him discusses the nature of faith and his own personal philosophy."

Simon Sebag Montefiore, author of Jerusalem: The Biography

"Anthony Julius's Abraham is beautifully written, provocative, and wise."

Martha C. Nussbaum, University of Chicago

Worth Park History Society

Gardens: Worth Park is a 40-acre public park on the East side of Crawley, West Sussex. The formal gardens that surrounded Worth Park Mansion and laid out in the 1880's have been restored to the Victorian splendour of yesteryear, creating a unique gem that is enjoyed by many today. The Italianate Terraces, geometric forms and Camellia Corridor, meadow and lake area are all maintained by our excellent garden team and volunteers. The former stables to Worth Park Mansion houses the Visitor Centre, where you can find displays on history of the park and the Montefiore family. The former stable complex was built to compliment the mansion. Built in 1882, it is now Grade II listed. Jame Pulham and Sons laid out the formal features of the garden, while in the lake there is a Pulhamite Islet and stonework on the larger island. A Fern Rockery has been restored at the former carriage turning circle to the mansion. Grade II. The park is open at all times. The Visitor Centre is open at various times. Free to enter. Worth Park Gardens, Milton Mount Avenue, Pound Hill, Crawley, West Sussex RH10 3DH. Car parking is limited. Walk: 'Radicals to Rinkoff's: Whitechapel'. This ever popular tour with Rachel Kolsky and Esther Rinkoff explores Jewish Whitechapel including synagogues, bakers and Boris the photographer, but also the radical history of the East End's revolutionaries and activists, including the Siege of Sidney Street, Rachel's favourite anarchist couple, Rudolph Rocker and Millie Witcop and the 20th century rent strikes. Esther will weave into the walk the sites and story behind the only surviving Jewish family-owned baker in Whitechapel, Rinkoff's, founded in 1911. Their story includes not only bread but fame as an art installation and film location. The tour ends at the bakery, so ensure you have time for refreshments!. Tour starts at 10.30am. £20 per person and everyone attending will be given 10% discount on any purchases made at the bakery (eat in or takeaway) at the end of the tour. Pre-booking required. British participation in the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage is organised by B'nai B'rith UK, part of B'nai B'rith International, which was founded in New York in 1843 and in 2023 celebrated its 180th anniversary.

Jewish Whitechapel/Rinkoff Bakery

Today, it is one of the largest Jewish volunteer organisations active in humanitarian, human rights and cultural and charitable work in 59 countries, many of which are affiliated to B'nai B'rith Europe.

Launched in 1996 by the B'nai B'rith Lodge in Strasbourg, the Open Days became pan-European in 2000 and are now under the aegis of the European Association for the Preservation and Promotion of Jewish Culture and Heritage (AEPJ), with the participation of 31 countries.

In 2025, B'nai B'rith UK would like to acknowledge the contribution of the Survey of the Jewish Built Heritage (SJBH) and members of B'nai B'rith UK, for their generous support, as well as our participants who are making these Open Days, talks, guided walks and events, whether real or virtual, possible by opening their buildings to the public and/or arranging events.
