Guest SPEAKERS

Monica Torres

Founder of Cold Hands & Next Gen Mortuary Support

This seminar delivers successes with proven results related to embalming hard cases. Professional growth and development through trouble shooting failures take the front seat.

Heather Welborn

Death Educator, Speaker

Preventing secondary traumas to our families by utilizing psychological first aid skills in the arrangement conference

Guest SPEAKERS

Jennifer Lares

Funeral Service Training & Consulting

Throughout this presentation, valuable insight gathered through research will provide attendees of any gender with guidance on how to sidestep common assumptions and biases and create a more equal workplace environment.

Christine Soza & Karen Midlo

Doulagivers of Idaho & PNW

A Death Doula is a non-medical person trained to care for someone holistically (physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually) at the end of life. This profession has grown exponentially over the last decade, but confusion still exists around it as it becomes more mainstream.
