Move-Out & Additional Charges Disclosure

At the time of move-out, residents may be assessed charges for any unpaid balances, physical damages beyond normal wear and tear, excessive cleaning necessary to return the apartment to rent-ready condition, removal of personal property, or other lease violations identified during the final inspection.

Any applicable charges will be itemized and deducted from the security deposit in accordance with the lease agreement and state law. If charges exceed the security deposit amount, the resident will remain responsible for the outstanding balance.

Fees not specifically listed in this schedule are not automatic charges. Any additional services, optional items, or agreed-upon arrangements would only be assessed if documented in writing and mutually agreed upon by management and the resident.
