Disbursements

Disbursements are items arranged for and possibly paid for on your behalf by us. You are expected to pay for these items at the time the contract is entered into. The following are some items that are often identified as disbursement.

Clergy Honorarium – this is an amount paid to the clergy for their services.

Organist and or Soloist – this is an amount paid to an organist and or soloist for musical accompaniment during a funeral service ceremony or celebration. In some cases, the organist and soloist are the same performer.

Municipal Death Registration Fee – this is a fee charged by the local municipality to register the death. The fee is set by the municipality and may vary.

Bereavement Authority of Ontario Consumer Protection Fee – this $30 fee is charged by the BAO in order to provide its services of information on your options in bereavement services, and to regulate the profession, making sure the law is consistently followed.

Coroner's Fee – this is a fee charged by the coroner for issuing a certificate that allows cremation to take place or out of province transportation certificate. The fee is set by the Chief Coroner for Ontario.

Newspaper – these are charges for death notices placed in newspapers.

Payment

Unless otherwise specified, a 50% deposit is required upon signing the contract and full payment is due by the date of delivery of the supplies and services specified on the contract. Payment may be made by cash, cheque, debit card, Visa, Mastercard or AMEX. Beyond the allotted time, interest will be charged at a rate of 1 ½ % per month which is equivalent to 18% per annum.

If you are pre-paying for services or supplies, pre-authorized chequing is also available.

Funding

For your convenience, we offer a funding option when prepaying services or supplies. When prepaying, you pay for the services and supplies today and the money will be used to pay for the services and supplies when they are delivered at the time of death.

Trust: You may pay the money directly to us and we will place it in trust, where it will accrue interest until the contract is fulfilled (when the services and supplies are delivered) or the contract is cancelled.

Additional information about the funding, payment and financing options are available upon request.

Unless otherwise identified, all applicable taxes will be added to the prices indicated.

Our enduring promise to our community

It remains our honor and duty to serve our families in need, guided by our core values of Care, Compassion and Trust. These principles have allowed us to remain a steadfast presence in our community for 30 years and will continue to guide us for many more. We understand that the cost of a funeral or farewell can be a burden, which is why our home offers flexible and economical options without compromising on the quality of service. Your trust in us is deeply appreciated and we are committed to supporting you with empathy and dedication during these times.
