The poster features a large, glowing cross in the center, with a globe of the Earth as its background. The sun is shining from behind the cross, creating a bright, warm glow. In the foreground, silhouettes of a diverse group of people, including men, women, and children, are walking towards the cross. The background also shows silhouettes of churches and palm trees. The text 'ONE IN CHRIST, United in Mission' is at the top, with 'United in Mission' in a script font. Below that, a red banner reads '100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY'. The main title 'World Mission Sunday October 18th, 2026' is in large, bold letters. At the bottom, the phrase 'Together We Bring Christ to the World' is written in a script font, flanked by two horizontal lines.

GROW TOGETHER IN CHRIST

It can be quite stressful and even distressful to be away from the comfort and security of home and country.

In the gospel, we heard that as Jesus showed Himself to the Eleven after His Resurrection, He also said to them: Go out to the whole world, proclaim the Good News to all creation.

In no mistakable terms, Jesus was giving His disciples an overseas posting, and they cannot decline it, they can't reject it and it is also non-negotiable.

Today, as the Church celebrates Mission Sunday, we are reminded that like the disciples, we are called and chosen and sent.

But it does not necessarily mean that we have to go overseas. Essentially it means that we are sent to people.

Because Roman 10:13-15 has this to say: For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But they will not ask His help unless they believe in Him, and they will not believe in Him unless they have heard of Him, and they will not hear of Him unless they get a proclaimer, and they will never have a proclaimer unless one is sent.

Yes, we are sent to people to bring them the Good News of Jesus Christ.

But we must also remember that people don't care about what we know until and unless they know that we care about them.

The prerequisite for the proclamation of the Good News is that we care for the people that we are sent to.

Mission Sunday reminds us that Jesus sends us out to people, and the first thing that we need to do in order to witness to the Good News is to respect the people and to care about what they care about.

We are sent to our family members at home, to our colleagues at our workplace, to the people that we meet along the way, even to the people in Church.

When these people know that we care about them and respect them, then it is the sign that the Good News is proclaimed.

So people are waiting for the sign. The Lord Jesus wants to give them the sign. May we be that sign that the Lord will work for them, so that the Good News will be proclaimed.

Blessings,

Rev. Dominic Long Nguyen, S.S.S.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today Jesus says: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society will be collecting food and money to help feed and care for our neighbors in need. Please consider offering a donation.

LIVING IN DIVINE WILL

Join our weekly Monday Afternoon Cenacle at 3:00 PM in the Education Bldg. to learn how to live in His Will. Listen to Fr. Robert Young OFM interpreting the holy writings of "The Servant of God Luisa Piccarreta."

What Terror! And Jesus all afflicted, told me: "My daughter, just as you see these waters that descend from Heaven in torrents and inundating, form with strength the sepulchers in which to bury entire cities, so does My Divine Will, more than water, make Its inundations –not in certain time or places, but always and over earth the whole earth pouring Its strong high inundations over each creature. But who lets himself be undated by Its inundations of light, of grace, of love, of sanctity and of happiness that It possesses? No one. What ingratitude, to receive Its goods in torrents and not to take them: to pass over them, maybe just getting wet. but not to let oneself". 10-16-1927
