Hello Friends,

Welcome to everyone who is joining us this weekend for the annual Immaculate Conception Parish Festival! We are a very historic parish (founded in 1848 by the great Fr. John Otto Bredeick!) with many Parish Festival memories and it's great to make new memories together this year. We hope everyone enjoys all the wonderful food and has fun and maybe you'll even win a few items this year! Many thanks and many blessings to our Festival leaders and workers! You make all the difference! We pray in advance that we will continue to have leaders and coordinators to keep the Festival a living part of parish tradition. (You've been seeing notices in the bulletin that we are asking for future help and new leaders. Thank you for your prayers and consideration!)

October 12th is a special day for the Church, for it is the Feast Day of St. Carlo Acutis! St. Carlo has become a very important part of our lives! How so? Well, many of us, when we drive through the Ottoville Park and Immaculate Conception Parish parking lots (and we had a very busy soccer season, so the parking lots were often full!), we see a teen seated on a bench behind the campus gazebo. Many of us have looked up doing "doubletakes" to see who that kid is. Well, that is St. Carlo! And that is him courtesy of the Vacation Bible School project. Why did the group choose this saint? Well, it ultimately has to do with a few factors. For one, St. Carlo is the first millennial saint, and so he is relatable. Pope Leo XIV canonized him last year (along with St. Pier Giorgio Frassati) to particularly serve as a saint for youth. St. Carlo, who died Oct 12, 2006, is in many ways similar to many other kids. This is represented in his statue on our campus. He was very interested and knowledgeable about technology, so we depict him with a laptop. (We also have a camera with him. He loved taking photographs and posting his pictures.) Carlo liked video games like many kids (and adults) do; but he also created websites exploring the teachings and the mysteries of the Catholic faith, most particularly, Eucharistic miracles. He also liked soccer, so we also depict him with a soccer ball. And, he had pets, particularly dogs. In this he was like his greatest mentor St. Francis of Assisi, one of the patron saints for those who love animals. (We were going to name the dog near Carlo..."Otto" was a name that came up!)

But, what he particularly loved was the Eucharist. This is not as rare as it may seem for a boy of his age. Many of our saints fell in love with the faith from the time of their First Holy Communion. For Carlo, who is depicted in our statue with a symbol of the Host and Chalice on his sweater, he considered the Eucharist as the surest way a person could get to Heaven. Jesus gave his life and gave us this Sacrament so that we may be the best people we can be in this life, and to give us a direct way (if we are clean of mortal sin!) to get to Heaven; for the Eucharist is "The Bread of Angels" and the "Bread of Everlasting Life." In his short life (he would die at age 15 from leukemia) he had a profound impact on so many people, starting with his mother (she only grew in the faith because of him) and the many others he connected with either in person or online through his websites. He has become a popular saint, and we can see the fruits of his impact even locally. Many of our young people are also becoming more and more engaged in prayer and Eucharistic Adoration and even evangelization. We are glad to have St. Carlo on campus, and we thank everyone who contributed to making this happen! Happy Feast Day! -Fr. George Mahas—

Immaculate Conception Parish would like to acknowledge and sincerely thank Sara Beining for her many years of dedicated service teaching 2nd Grade Religious Education.

Sara has done a wonderful job guiding and preparing our young children as they learn about and prepare to receive the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. Her time, dedication, and love for our children and their faith formation have been a true blessing to our parish.

We wish Sara all the best as she takes on a new role teaching 7th Grade Confirmation here at Immaculate Conception next school year!

Thank you, Sara, for sharing your time, talents, and faith with our parish family! God bless you!

Next school year (2027/28), we will need a new heartfelt Catechist to take over teaching 2nd grade Religious Ed!

This is a very rewarding teaching role, giving the opportunity to be more educated on the sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Communion.

If you think you might be interested, please reach out to the Parish Office or Sherrie Looser.

Thank you for prayerfully considering!

Confirmation Mass

Next Saturday, October 17th, at 4 p.m. Mass, our parish eighth graders will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, with Monsignor Kubacki presiding.

We invite the parish community to keep these young men and women in your prayers as they take this important step in their faith journey.

May the Holy Spirit strengthen them with His gifts and guide them to live as faithful disciples of Christ.
