Parish Office Hours— Week of September 7th

Please note the following changes to our office hours next week:

Monday, September 7th—Closed for Labor Day
Thursday, September 10th—Office will close at Noon

Please plan accordingly. Thank you for your understanding!

Dear God,

On Labor Day, we thank You for the gift of work and for everyone who works hard to provide for their families. We're thankful for farmers, inventors, and people who help others.

Please help those looking for jobs find good ones soon. And bless everyone at work, so they enjoy what they do and stay safe.

Let bosses be fair and kind to their teams.

As we rest today, help us remember how important work is and give us energy for our tasks ahead.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Honored to Host the Diocesan Pastoral Advisory Council

Last weekend, Immaculate Conception Parish, part of the St. George Deanery, hosted the Diocesan Pastoral Advisory Council. The council is made up of volunteers who represent each Deanery within the Toledo Diocese. The council serves as an advisory group to Bishop Thomas. There were 17 volunteers and Diocesan staff, including the Bishop, in attendance.

Each Deanery provides a brief overview of what their focus is. Some examples include, a youth focus, increasing lay ministry and, even providing security during Mass. Bishop Thomas also gives updates on the state of the Catholic faith throughout the diocese, United States and even some insights provided from Pope Leo.

The group meets four times a year at various parishes throughout the Diocese. It was truly an honor to host this wonderful group. The meeting was held in the newly renovated Community Room. All in attendance commented on how nice the room looked.

Thanks to all who helped prepare for this meeting. The office staff and maintenance crew had the place spotless. Also, thanks to Tina Koester, a member of the hospitality committee, for her help. If you have questions or would like to know more about this Pastoral Council, please reach out to Julie Brickner.

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hello Friends,

This weekend is the annual Ottoville Park Carnival! Blessings to all of the organizers and to everyone who works hard to maintain and grow the Park. It's remarkable how connected we are in this central area of Ottoville. The active, clean, and well-maintained Ottoville Park gives the community a healthy and vibrant feeling. A lot of work and widespread community support has grown the Park to what it is today. People say, "It's come a long way through the years!" Have a great Park Carnival and blessed Labor Day weekend!

As we know, one of the great Americans, Dolly Parton, has passed away at the age of 80. (If you ever drive in Tennessee, you see her everywhere! That is not a bad thing.) In the 250 years of our nation, there's never been anyone quite like her. What made Dolly so special?

Of course, she had a once in a generation talent and an amazing work ethic and brilliant mind (she could memorize entire movie scripts and she became an astute billionaire businesswoman...) but to begin with, she was born and raised in a place where many Americans live but are seldom seen and are largely misunderstood. Growing up in rural Appalachia (in the East Tennessee region), the family barely had any money, but they were good people and had love. Dolly's mom was only 15 when she got married and started having children (12 total). It was her mom, Avie Lee, who was Dolly's original and enduring inspiration. Dolly said of her: "Mama didn't have nothing except a bunch of kids. And she was the kind of person who could tell you anything, and make it sound good; cook anything and make it taste good." Dolly mentioned one Christmas when the church was passing out little gifts to all the children and women, one of the church ladies said to her Mama, "We're out. Now you don't mind if you don't get one. You have so many kids." Avie Lee said, "I don't mind." But as Dolly would say, "Everybody is still a kid at Christmas". Then, Dolly saw her mother sitting down on a bench crying. It was one of those times when you don't want to cry, and weren't planning on it, but something just gets to you. Dolly's mom never left home for anything she may have wanted for herself; it was truly a life lived for her family, all the time. Dolly went to her mom, "Mama, you can have mine." "No honey, I don't want yours. But know that I love you because of your good heart."

"So, because of Mama, I've always tried to have a good heart. I just want to love everybody and I want everybody to love me. I know that's not possible but the ones who love me make up for the ones who don't. I always remember Mama saying, 'I had a good heart'."

Dolly Parton wrote 3,000 songs, including the famous "I Will Always Love You", "Coat of Many Colors", "Jolene", "9 to 5", and even the haunting "The Bridge" which she wrote as a teenager. She always considered herself a songwriter and performer and entertainer first and foremost; but, along the way, she became one of America's great and true humanitarians. She retained a fiercely private life (most people never saw her husband!), but she was as generous as any successful person has ever been in our history. Her legacy will

Fall Festival

Help Keep Our Parish Festival Tradition Alive!

Our Annual Immaculate Conception Parish Festival is a beloved tradition that brings our parish family, friends, and community together each year. We are looking for new co-chairs as overall leaders to help continue this wonderful tradition!

This is a temporary leadership commitment (likely a 3-year term), and you won't be on your own! New co-chairs will have the opportunity to observe and work alongside our current co-chairs, receive training and guidance, and learn everything needed to make the festival a success. A detailed festival "playbook" is also available to help guide you through the process—much of the work simply involves following the steps that are already in place.

If you enjoy working with others, helping our parish, and being part of a great tradition, we would love to have you consider this opportunity. Please prayerfully consider sharing your time and talents!

To express your interest, please contact the parish office.
