Message from Fr Tony Hesse:

He is gone again!! You might be thinking these words as you look at the bulletin this week. And, in a sense, you are right. I will be gone on Tuesday and Wednesday for Clergy Days. The theme for Clergy Days is "Being in the World, but Not of the World." The presenter is Fr. James Mason (who is a priest from Sioux Falls Diocese and rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary). Although I am not sure what his talk will be about, the theme is a reminder for all of us.

This phrase is a Christian principle, rooted in Jesus's prayer in John 17:14-16, that calls believers to live within society but without adopting its sinful values or priorities. It means engaging with the world by working and interacting with others, but maintaining a distinct identity and set of values aligned with God's kingdom, rather than the fallen system of this world. Although it is easy to say this, it oftentimes is hard to live it out. It is hard to live out our faith and to put God and others first before our own needs and wants, especially when our society tells us to focus on ourselves and to do what we want to do. However, not only is this a prayer of our Lord's, but we can be an answer to this prayer by staying focused on the next world. Everything we should do, should always focus on the afterlife. And maybe that is the gauge we can use to determine our actions. Is what I am doing glorifying our God with the hopes that I want to be with Him in heaven? If not, there is time. God is always willing to work with us, are we willing to work with Him.

And when it comes to working together, I will be working with a friend of mine to work on my deer stand (which is what I will be doing at the end of the week by taking a couple days off for vacation). Last year I was blessed by a parishioner who helped build my deer stand. This week, I hope to make some additional tweaks to it. And speaking of deer stand, I just want to put a plea out there for everyone to be safe – as hunters, as passersby. As we are in this season of deer, pheasant, goose, etc. hunting, please safe and smart. God wants us to be with him in the next world, but He does not want us to force His hand. Please be careful! May God keep our hunters and all those in harms way safe, our farmers safe, and all of us safe as we battle against the evil one so that we can one day be with the Holy One!!!

Women's Emmaus Retreat

"They were greeted with, The Lord has been raised! It is true! He has appeared to Simon" then they recounted what had happened on the road and how they had come to know him in the breaking of the bread. Luke 24: 34-35

The Emmaus retreat and the women that I have met through this have had a huge impact on my spiritual life. It gave me the courage to follow God's path for my life and allowed me to meet wonderful women who are also searching for God's will in their life. Please consider attending, you will not be sorry you did. ~ past participant

Who: All women of faith

When: Oct. 24-26 (Friday evening to Sunday afternoon)

Where: Beautiful Lake Shetek Retreat Center

Cost: $150, includes all meals!

Space is limited!

"Love Unveiled" - SHE, Fall 2025

In this season, we will explore what it means for us, as women, to represent the identity of Christ's bride to the world. This relationship is marked by joy and intimacy, but also, like any relationship, it includes moments of failure, heartbreak, and the need for restoration. As we journey together, we will delve into the depths of Christ's love for His Bride, discovering the beauty of reconciliation and the grace that heals and strengthens us. Prepare your heart to be pursued by the Lord in a way that deepens your love for Him, invites your soul to heal, and fortifies your relationship with Christ. This week we will be talking about "Surrendering" ourselves. Please join us at St Catherine Church on Monday, October 14th at 6 PM in classroom 9 - 10. See you there!

Coming Soon: Brand New Church Bulletin!!

Starting the weekend of November 16th, the parishes will have a BRAND NEW Church Bulletin. This change will save the parishes time & money; and allow for an expanded bulletin that will have a new professional look, with vibrant FULL COLOR inside the bulletin, and also for the business sponsors on the back cover! Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from the new printer, LPi, is currently setting up the advertising for our new bulletin. We hope you will consider advertising on the bulletin, since the revenue from the ads will make the NEW bulletin possible at no cost to the parishes. Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parishes, please let them know about this opportunity. It's a terrific way to get your name in front of the parish families.

Advertisements can be purchased for a business, for a family, a memorial ad, or a sponsorship ad for a non-profit organization that you would like to support. This is a great way for businesses to promote what they do, while at the same time connecting with the community, and supporting the church at the same time.

Please do give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you would like more information, you can reach Gina Shaughnessy at (952) 356-6488, or her email is GShaughnessy@4LPi.com .

2025 Marathon Wrap Up

What a beautiful and reverent day we shared during our marathon and prayer pilgrimage! The spirit of community was truly alive as so many of our school families and friends came together in prayer, participation, and generosity ($44,822 raised!). Your presence and support made this event not only successful but deeply meaningful. We are especially grateful for the prayers lifted, the steps taken, and the donations given—all of which reflect the heart of our mission: Enter to Learn Christ, Exit to Serve Christ. Through this pilgrimage, we lived out our calling to grow in faith and serve with love, walking together in unity and purpose. Thank you for being a vital part of this journey.

St. Anne's Book Fair

We are excited to offer a Book Fair again during Conferences. This year we are introducing a new Book Fair company, Ignatius Book Fairs.

There is a sneak peek of some of the items that will be available for purchase in the church gathering area. There is also a wide selection of items for purchase on their website.

Teacher wish lists will be available at the fair next week or can be viewed on the Ignatius website.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, a powerful reminder of our shared responsibility to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. It is a day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer and solidarity to support the missionary work of the Church. This year's theme, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," is particularly moving because, even though it was chosen by Pope Francis, it reflects both the heart of our faith and the vision of our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV.

Pope Leo XIV, who spent most of his priestly ministry as a missionary in the remote regions of Peru, reminds us that The Pontifical Mission Societies are "the primary means for awakening missionary responsibility among all the baptized [and for] supporting ecclesial communities in areas where the Church is young." His personal witness deepens the meaning of this year's celebration, inviting us all to renew our commitment to the Church's mission in the world.

It is fitting, as we reflect on our role in supporting the missions, to remember that the Catholic Church in the United States was itself once a mission territory. Just over a century ago, the faith here was still taking root, supported by the generosity of Catholics from Europe and beyond, who provided financial assistance, sent priests and religious, and built the parishes and schools that formed the foundation of the Church in this country. Without that missionary support, many of the dioceses we know today would have struggled even more to grow. In those early years, American Catholics benefited from the same collection we are today invited to support, overseen by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of four Pontifical Mission Societies.

Now, it is our turn to extend that same generosity to others. We are called to support the missionaries, priests, religious sisters and brothers, and lay leaders who serve in the 1,124 mission territories where the Church is still young, vibrant, and often facing persecution or poverty. These areas, spanning Asia, Africa, Latin America, Oceania, and the Middle East, depend on our prayers and financial support to sustain and expand their efforts to share Christ and his saving words and work.

The second collection today supports the work of The Pontifical Mission Societies, the Pope's official means of assisting Catholic communities in the world's poorest and most remote regions. Our contributions provide essential resources for the Church's mission: the formation of seminarians and religious sisters, ensuring that future priests and religious leaders are prepared to serve; the training of lay catechists, who bring the faith to communities that may not have regular access to a priest; education for children in Catholic schools, giving them not only knowledge but also a foundation of faith; medical care in Church-run hospitals and clinics, offering healing and hope where healthcare is scarce; and the construction and maintenance of churches and parish centers, creating sacred spaces where the faithful can gather, worship, and grow in their relationship with Jesus.

Your prayers and sacrifices today ensure that the light of Christ reaches the ends of the earth. The Church's mission is not the responsibility only of those who serve in distant lands; it belongs to all of us by baptism. Each time we support the missions, we affirm that we are one Church, one family in Christ, united in bringing hope and love to all people.

I encourage you to respond with a generous heart, knowing that your support makes a real difference in the lives of those who might otherwise never hear the Gospel.

May this World Mission Sunday deepen our commitment to the missionary dimension of our faith. Let us go forth as Missionaries of Hope, bringing God's love and mercy to all people.

Gratefully in the Lord,

The Most Reverend Chad W. Zielinski
Bishop of New Ulm
