Message from Fr Tony Hesse:

"Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.' He replied to him, 'Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?'. Then he said to the crowd, 'Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.' Then he told them a parable. 'There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?'. And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, 'Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!'" But God said to him, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?" Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God.'" (Lk 12:13-21) For those of you who attended Mass on Monday, October 20th, at St Catherine or if you read the readings for that day, this was the Gospel that was assigned. The reason why I share it this weekend in my bulletin blurb is because as I drive around, I see a lot of corn piles. And not just the usual fall harvest piles but big ones and even more of them. It reminds me of something I heard on the radio a couple of weeks ago that in response to all the grain the radio announcer said, "Build bigger bins." Now, I'm not trying to tell our farmers or our local elevators what to do, however, our message in this Gospel cannot be ignored and can apply to all of us. Are we storing up treasures in heaven? Are we focusing on where it is that hopefully we are wanting to go? Face it, all of us have been blessed with some things at some point in our lives. And, as we heard a couple of Sundays ago from Luke 17:11-19, about the Samaritan who returned giving thanks to God for being healed, are we showing thanks for our blessings? Are we being good stewards with our blessings? Again, time after time, we keep hearing that we will not be able to take any of it with us. Because, as we celebrate All Souls Day this weekend, remember, we are not going to be here on earth forever, and we cannot take any of it with us - which is why we need to store up heavenly treasures here on earth. So, what are these heavenly treasures that we should be storing up? Well, on Saturday (Nov. 1), we just celebrated All Saints Day, and Jesus gives us some great examples of how to store up heavenly treasures by living out the Beatitudes. The treasures that we should be storing up and celebrating are being poor in spirit (humbly putting God and others before ourselves), finding comfort in God when we mourn, being meek, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, showing mercy, being clean of heart, being peacemakers, and willing to be persecuted for doing what we feel is right (Mt 5:3-11). These are the treasures of heaven. The Beatitudes should be our goal in this life so that we can get to the next. So, whether we build bigger bins or expand our checkbooks, we need to make sure that we are also expanding our hearts with love and mercy and living out our call to build God's Kingdom here on earth. However, if you do have extra funds, extra piles of grain, we are still collecting for our school project so that we can be able to get the facility that we need at St Anne. Plus, our churches are also willing to be recipients of God's blessings to you. Remember, if we are a good stewards with our gifts and our treasures, if we embrace the attitude of the Beatitudes, "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven" (Lk 5:12a).

Coming Soon: Brand New Church Bulletin!!

Starting the weekend of November 16th, the parishes will have a BRAND NEW Church Bulletin. This change will save the parishes time & money; and allow for an expanded bulletin that will have a new professional look, with vibrant FULL COLOR inside the bulletin, and also for the business sponsors on the back cover! Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from the new printer, LPi, is currently setting up the advertising for our new bulletin. We hope you will consider advertising on the bulletin, since the revenue from the ads will make the NEW bulletin possible at no cost to the parishes. Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parishes, please let them know about this opportunity. It's a terrific way to get your name in front of the parish families.

Advertisements can be purchased for a business, for a family, a memorial ad, or a sponsorship ad for a non-profit organization that you would like to support. This is a great way for businesses to promote what they do, connect with the community, and support the church at the same time.

Please do give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you would like more information, you can reach Gina Shaughnessy at (952) 356-6488, or her email is GShaughnessy@4LPi.com.

Catholicism Series with Bishop Robert Barron

Upcoming 2025 Triennial National Collection

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am writing to ask for your prayerful support for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), as part of the Diocese of New Ulm participation in the 2025 Triennial National Collection.

The AMS was established by Saint John Paul II in 1985 to provide the Catholic Church's full range of pastoral ministries to those in the United States Armed Forces. The mission of the Archdiocese is, "Serving Those Who Serve," providing the same pastoral care and services you expect to Catholics serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs' Medical Centers in the U.S., Puerto Rico and Guam, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and the families of these populations. This includes members of our own diocese.

While the salaries and retirement of military chaplains are paid by the government, the AMS receives no funding from the military or the government in support of programs and services vital to the mission and ministry of its mission, including Vocations, Evangelization and Catechesis, Sacramental Records, pastoral visits, Tribunal and Veterans Affairs.

Unlike a conventional diocese, the AMS has no parishes or parish registries. The AMS has no weekly collections and relies solely on the generosity of private donations to support its aforementioned programs and services.

Your support of the 2025 Triennial National Collection for the AMS will bring the Gospel, the sacraments and other forms of spiritual support to men and women who serve our Country and defend our freedoms, including parishioners and families from your own parish family. Thank you, in advance, for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ, The Most Reverend Chad W. Zielinski October 23, 2025
