Superior education has always been a hallmark of The Real Estate School of the Lancaster County Association of Realtors® (LCAR). Since its inception in 1984, the school has provided basic courses for individuals seeking a real estate license, advanced educational programs for those pursuing a broker's license and continuing education coursework to help Realtors® stay abreast of what's new in the real estate industry.

How to obtain a Real Estate Salesperson's License

The Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission requires individuals who wish to obtain a Pennsylvania State Real Estate Salesperson License, be at least 18 years of age, have a high school diploma or equivalent, and successfully complete 75 hours of education in two courses - Real Estate Fundamentals and Real Estate Practice. The applicant must then earn a passing grade on the State Licensing Exams, which are administered by Pearson Vue Testing Service. After passing the State Exam, the individual must be affiliate with a Broker before applying for licensure at www.Pals.PA.Gov. A Criminal History Report will be submitted to the PA State Police upon licensure application—the fee will be included at checkout. Applicants must upload a Fundamentals Transcript and Practice Transcript (completed within the past 5 years), and their Score Sheet from the National and State portions of the State Licensing Examination (completed within the past 3 years).

Real Estate Fundamentals ~ 30 Hours

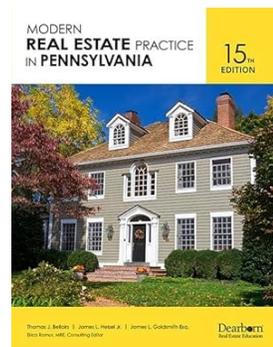

This course provides students with an understanding of the language, principles and laws which govern the real estate business. Tuition is $225 and payable at or before the first class session.

Real Estate Practice ~ 45 Hours

This course is designed to acquaint students with the basic techniques, procedures, regulations and ethics involved in a real estate transaction. Tuition is $275 and payable at or before the first class session.

Textbook

The textbook used in both courses is Modern Real Estate Practice in Pennsylvania, 15th Edition. Textbooks are $40 plus tax, and may be purchased at the first class session. They may also be purchased prior to the start of the course at The Real Estate School of LCAR, 1930 Harrington Drive, Lancaster.

Grading

Grading is based on the final exam. Students with a score of 70 or higher will receive credit for the course. Students receiving a grade lower than 70 will have the opportunity to re-test.

The Real Estate School of LCAR reserves the right to cancel any course due to insufficient enrollment or unavoidable circumstances.

Continuing Education

The Real Estate School of LCAR offers continuing education as in-person classes, hybrid options and online training. Visit the www.LCARonline.com for available courses.

Continuing Education Requirements:

Pennsylvania real estate licensees (Salesperson, Associate Broker, Broker) must renew their license every two years. Renewal deadlines are May of the even-numbered year. All licensees must complete 14 hours of continuing education.

Individuals licensed before Dec. 1, 2023 must complete at least 5 hours of CE in the topics of Fair Housing (2 hours) and Agency Relationship (3 hours). The remaining hours may be completed in any continuing education topic of interest, including First Renewal (General & Residential) modules.

Individuals licensed after Dec. 1, 2023 must complete a 7 hour General module, and a 7 hour Residential module to satisfy their 14 hour requirement for their first licensure renewal.

New Licensees after Dec. 1, 2025 are exempt from completion of the continuing education requirement. However, the licensee must complete the license renewal process prior to May 31, 2026.

For a current schedule of the Continuing Education classroom sessions, please email Tracy@LCARonline.com or contact The Real Estate School of LCAR: 717-569-5031.
