

The Daffodil Express 2025

Saturday 13 September

This morning we depart New Plymouth and travel south picking up fellow passengers on the way. We pause for lunch before making our way to Wellington, our home for the next 2 nights.

ACCOMMODATION: Brentwood Hotel (2 nights)

Sunday 14 September

Today we join the Steam Incorporated Society aboard one of their heritage steam trains as we take a glimpse into the bygone era of train travel. Once we clear the congestion of Wellington, immerse yourself in 15 minutes of darkness as the train climbs, crests and then descends through the Rimutaka tunnel! (This portion of the journey, the train is helped by a pair of heritage diesel locomotives whilst traversing the 8.8km tunnel. Upon arriving into Featherston, our helpers are detached and 71 is left to work its way up the Wairarapa line).

Located in the heart of the Wairarapa, Carterton's popular Daffodil Festival offers an abundance of activities ranging from the famous Daffodil picking at Middlerun Farm, markets along High and Holloway Streets, the Big Wai Art sale in the events Centre, Carterton Farmers Market and loads more family fun.

As the afternoon sun slowly dips behind the hills, listen to the exhaust beat of our Ja as it hauls our huge 400 tonne train back to Featherston. As in the morning, our 'helpers' are attached for the Rimutaka tunnel portion of the journey.

Whilst the day may be over upon arriving at Wellington, the memories of the day live on!

Monday 15 September

This morning we depart Wellington for our return journey home, pausing at a couple of places on our way.
