SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

17 MAR (Tuesday):

SAINT PATRICK OF IRELAND, Bishop (385-461)

Patrick was probably the son of a Roman-British official. At 16, he was captured by raiders and taken to pagan Ireland to tend sheep. He escaped from slavery, studied for the priesthood in Britain, and was ordained. He was consecrated a bishop around 432 and was returned to Ireland. He raised the standards of scholarship and tirelessly preached the Gospel despite the opposition of chieftains and Druids whom he is said to have overcome by miraculous means. He converted most of the island to the faith, and of course is now revered as the patron saint of Ireland.

We will have Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent, following the 05:30 PM Mass

19 MAR (Thursday):

SAINT JOSEPH, Husband of the Virgin Mary

The Bible pays Joseph the highest compliment: he was a “just” man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts. When the Bible speaks of God “justifying” someone, it means that God, the all-holy or “righteous” One, so transforms a person that the individual shares somehow in God’s own holiness. By saying Joseph was “just,” the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God.

“In him the Old Testament finds its fitting close. He brought the noble line of patriarchs and prophets to its promised fulfillment. What the divine good had offered as a promise to them, Joseph held in his arms.”

St. Bernadine of Siena

DID YOU KNOW?

1. The well-known legend of the shamrock connects it definitely to St. Patrick and his teaching. Preaching in the open air on the doctrine of the Trinity, he is said to have illustrated the existence of the Three in One by plucking a shamrock from the grass growing at his feet and showing it to his congregation. The trefoil, being a sacred plant among the Druids, and three being a mystical number in the Celtic religion, it is probable that St. Patrick must have been aware of the significance of his illustration.

2. Although the stories of Saint Patrick driving all the snakes out of Ireland are widespread, it should be noted that there have never been any snakes (natively) in Ireland. As an island surrounded by salt water, Ireland didn't exist at the time the pre-historic predecessors of snakes would have wandered over from the mainland of Europe. (P.S., New Zealand doesn't have any snakes (naturally), either: same reason).

3. While the "wearing of the green" is popular on Saint Patrick's Day, in many communities (like the Polish) it is customary to wear white and red on Saint Joseph's Day (19 March).

4. Saint Joseph's feast day is the day on which the first cliff swallows return to their roosts in San Juan Capistrano (back from their winter vacations in Argentina).

Legend has it that the swallows took refuge in the Mission San Juan Capistrano from an irate innkeeper who destroyed their muddy nests. The swallows return to the old ruined church each spring knowing they will be protected within the mission's walls. In fact, the city has taken their safety seriously, passing an ordinance against destroying their nests.

So-called "scout swallows" precede the main flock each year by a few days but the majority of the small birds usually arrive on the 19th and begin rebuilding the mud nests that cling to the ruins of the old stone church and throughout the Capistrano Valley.

FATHERS:

Pray to St. Joseph. Ask for his intercession and help. He understands the particular concerns, burdens and obligations of fathers, and he is ready and well able to intercede with our blessed Lord to send you the graces and strength you need in this most noble of callings. Do not hesitate to ask for his assistance.

NOTE: Some details may be subject to change.
