OUR SPEAKERS

Fr. Mark Doherty

Fr. Mark Doherty, the third of Patrick and Marie-Annick Doherty's four sons, was born in Tacoma, Washington on August 28, 1980. Fr. Doherty's first years of life were spent in west Africa (Sierra Leone and Burkina Faso), where his father worked for Catholic Relief Services. In the summer of 1982 the family relocated to San Francisco. Mark and his brothers attended the Lycée français, St. Monica School, and Sacred Heart Cathedral Prep.

For the next two years Fr. Doherty served as parochial vicar of St. Peter and St. Anthony of Padua parishes in the Mission District of San Francisco. He also served as chaplain to San Francisco General Hospital as well as his alma mater, Sacred Heart Cathedral Prep. In September 2016 Fr. Doherty moved to Switzerland to resume graduate studies at the Université de Fribourg. Having earned his License in Sacred Theology in 2018, he was appointed 'assistant diplômé' to the Chair in Fundamental Moral Theology as he pursued work on his dissertation. In the course of his four years in Switzerland, Fr. Doherty also took on a number of pastoral charges, including serving as priest responsible of the English language Catholic community of Bern, and chaplain to Philanthropos (Fribourg). On October 1st, 2020, Fr. Dan Donohoo having resigned his post as rector of the seminary for health reasons, Archbishop Cordileone appointed Fr. Doherty interim rector-president of St. Patrick's. On February 24th, 2021 the Board of Trustees voted to appoint Fr. Doherty to a five-year term as rector of St. Patrick Seminary and University.

Dr. Anthony Lilles

Anthony Lilles, S.T.D., has served the Church and assisted in the formation of clergy and seminarians since 1994. Before coming to St. Patrick's, he served at seminaries and houses of formation in the Archdiocese of Denver and the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. The son of a California farmer, married with young adult children, holds a B.A. in theology from the Franciscan University of Steubenville with both the ecclesiastical licentiate and doctorate in spiritual theology from the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas in Rome (the Angelicum). An expert in the writings of St. Elisabeth of the Trinity and the Carmelite Doctors of the Church, he co-founded the Avila Institute for Spiritual Formation and the High Calling Program for priestly vocations. He also founded the John Paul II Center for Contemplative Culture, which hosts symposiums, retreats, and conferences. In addition to his publications, he blogs at www.beginningtopray.com, www.spiritualdirection.com, and podcasts at www.discerninghearts.com.
