Launching Thursday: The Ministry Toolbox Series

Our spiritual gifts mean we naturally have many different tools at our disposal in our toolbox, but sometimes those tools may need a little sharpening.

Enter: The Ministry Toolbox of Providence Presbytery.

We've invited experts in various areas to join us in a monthly live webinar where they will present information on their area of ministry expertise, then we will have a Q&A session. We hope you can join us!

February's topic is: Shared Ministry with the Rev. Dr. Jerry Cannon. As Vice President of Ministry Innovation with the Board of Pensions, he has a wealth of knowledge to help congregations navigate complex situations. His presentation for us will include an explanation of the Dues Incentive Programs of the BOP and recommendations for congregations desiring sustainability in their ministry. You can view Rev. Cannon's biography here.

The conversation will take place February 19 from 7:30 p.m. - 9 p.m. Please click here for more information and to register and get the zoom link.

Border Ministry Fundraiser A Success

More than 150 people gathered for an incredible fundraising dinner at Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church in Rock Hill on February 7th. Organizers with the Mexico Border Ministry team invited a panel of immigrants to speak and answer questions about their experience in the United States.

Their journeys here were varied, and some quite heartbreaking, but they all had a similar message for those present -- they love this country and want to work hard, and the process to obtain legal status in this country is too complex, costly and lengthy -- reform is needed!

Funds raised from the dinner will support the local Carolina Immigrant Alliance which helps immigrants with paperwork requirements to obtain legal status, and Frontera De Cristo which operates along the US-Mexico border and works to provide Mexican citizens with employment and resources so they don't feel a need to immigrate.

If you weren't able to attend the event but would like to donate toward these non-profits please click here.

New Lenten Series Available

Providence Presbytery's Mission Coordinator Dr. Eric Robinson has published a new Lenten curriculum with Center for Excellence in Christian Education at Union.

Stewards of Living Water is a six-session Bible study for adults. The six one-hour sessions focus on scripture passages from the Revised Common Lectionary Year A for Lent, exploring themes of water related to rebirth, provision, healing, restoration, and ritual, as well as water justice in the world.

Participants are invited on a transformational journey from the dryness of the desert to the life-giving water of a well and a pool, seeing how Christ and the Holy Spirit are at work in the search for Living Water. The path will lead to personal spiritual nourishment and engage our calling to live out our baptisms through mission, partnership, and stewardship for the sake of the world. Through multisensory and engaging activities, participants will experience God's life-giving nourishment. Perfect for a congregational setting or small group study.

EXECUTIVE CERTIFICATE IN RELIGIOUS FUNDRAISING

LAKE
on Faith & Giving

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

Presbyterian College is partnering with Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy's Lake Institute on Faith and Giving to offer the Executive Certificate in Religious Fundraising (ECRF) in the southeast region.

The Executive Certificate in Religious Fundraising (ECRF) is designed for religious leaders in faith-based organizations and institutions who wish to learn more about the spirituality of fundraising and gain a core foundation in fundraising principles. The ECRF covers four key topics and includes select required reading to be completed in advance and the completion of a final project.

The ECRF provides the research, tools, and customized training to meet the growing needs of leaders in religious communities and fundraisers for faith-based organizations. The focus of the ECRF is on the cultural, organizational, and philanthropic practices unique to religious institutions. These practices in turn enable donors motivated by spiritual and religious values to experience the joy of generous giving.

JOIN US NEXT IN
ATLANTA, GA
MAY 11-13, 2026

The ECRF utilizes faculty presentations, interactive discussion, selected readings, and a context-specific final project to address:

- Nurturing Generous Congregations and Organizations
- Nurturing Generous Donors
- The Practice of Religious Fundraising
- Integrating Religious Leadership and Fundraising

This hybrid, in-person and online, program allows students the opportunity to earn a certificate in fundraising as they explore motivations for giving in the nonprofit sector. The course begins with a required two and half days in-person teaching sessions, hosted by Presbyterian College, three additional online teaching hours, and ends with a practical application project.

New Action Circles Aim To Prevent Gun Violence Against Children

Imagine a school bus of 50 children crashing, killing every child, every four days for a year. Year after year after year. Wouldn't we do something about it?

That is the equivalent number of children being killed by gun violence in the United States today — about 50 children every four days. Since 2020, gun violence has been the top killer of American children — more than cancer, vehicle crashes or any other disaster. It has been the number one killer of children of color since 2006.

Starting February 4, the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship will launch “Protecting Children from Gun Violence: Imagining a New World.” This is a new action circle experience created by educators, church leaders and pastors in the Fellowship’s Gun Violence Prevention Ministry. The faith-based action circles will gather participants on Zoom for one hour weekly on five Wednesdays at noon Eastern Time. The winter action circles run Feb. 4- March 4 and the Spring Circles run April 15-May 13. Four cycles will be offered each year. Participants can bring a bag lunch or breakfast, depending on their time zone. The Action Circles are ecumenical and are offered free of charge.
