the FOOD SCHOOL

Hop aboard the Bowling Green Trolley and get ready for an unforgettable adventure to The Food School! As you roll through town, you'll uncover fascinating stories about Bowling Green—including its surprising connection to the one and only Duncan Hines!

Once you arrive, it's time to tie on your apron and dive into making a mouthwatering Brazilian feast you'll make from scratch. You'll whip up creamy chicken stroganoff served with fluffy rice and crispy potato sticks, bake everyone's favorite cheesy pão de queijo (cheese bread), and finish strong with a rich, chocolatey brigadeiro dessert.

It's history, flavors, and fun—all in one delicious trip!
