PREACHER'S BLEND

Remembering Elizabeth Austin, the First Woman Ordained as Elder in the First Presbyterian Church.

This year marks a milestone in the life of the First Presbyterian Church: the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of the first woman to serve as an elder. In 1975 a door was opened that forever changed the shape of the community and our witness in it.

It is difficult now to remember that until 1964 only men could serve as elders and pastors in the southern Presbyterian church. That changed in Palatka with the ordination of Elizabeth Austin. Her courage and faith, and that of the congregation, ushered in a new era for our church and for the many women who would follow in her footsteps. Her ordination did not occur in a vacuum. It emerged from years of dialogue, prayer, and advocacy for inclusion and representation across the Presbyterian Church. As she was ordained, she carried with her the hope and energies of generations of women who had served the church faithfully in unofficial capacities.

As we commemorate this historic achievement and the profound impact it has had on our congregation, let us remember the courage it took to say "yes" to God's call, an uncharted path at the time.

Over the past fifty years, women elders have enriched every aspect of church life. Their gifts have deepened our understanding of faith and broadened our witness in the community. We are thankful for the many women who have since served as elders and deacons, each bringing unique talents and perspectives to our shared ministry.

May this anniversary inspire us to continue building a church where all are welcomed, valued, and empowered to serve.

Your pastor and friend,
Cliff Lyda

Financial Report –August 31, 2025: Our budgeted expenditures for the year 2025 total $286,000. That is the amount we anticipated receiving from pledges, other donations, miscellaneous gifts and rental of Westminster Hall. In order to reach this total – we need to bring in an average of $5,500 per Sunday. Our actual receipts through the end of August total $4,555 per Sunday. In August we received an average of $3,500 per Sunday. If we are going to reach $286,000 by the end of the year, we now need to bring in $7,500 per Sunday.
