

BEYOND DROUGHT

FROM RISK TO RESILIENCE

12 | NOV
2025

Following one of the driest springs and summers on record, challenges still lie ahead. This one-day event will explore the transition from dry weather to drought, examining the implications for industries reliant on natural water supplies and the strategies needed to move from temporary solutions to lasting resilience.

The Pumping House, Brake Lane,
Ollerton, Newark, NG22 9HQ

envireauwater

EVENT PROGRAMME

ONLY
£197
+ VAT

- 9:00 Registration
- 9:30 Welcome
- 9:45 Defining Drought: What It Really Means for Industry
When does dry weather officially become a drought? This session explores the science, policy, and practical definitions that determine how drought is declared and managed.
- 10:15 Approaches to Drought Management in a Changing Climate
Delegates will explore the full spectrum of drought management, from assessing risks to developing contingency plans, with a focus on how businesses can adapt to more frequent and severe dry weather events.
- 11:00 Networking Break
- 11:15 Why Groundwater Counts, Unlocking Groundwater's potential
From monitoring to management, discover how industries can make groundwater a sustainable and reliable resource for the future.
- 11:45 From Policy to Practice: How Regulators Shape Water Use
Explore how regulatory frameworks guide water management, with practical examples from the regulators approach.
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 Navigating Regulation and Risk
This session focuses on the challenges and solutions for industries relying on private water supplies, with guidance on compliance, risk, and resilience.
- 14:15 Drought in the Real World
Hear how businesses across sectors have faced drought challenges and discover what strategies made a difference.
- 15:00 Networking Break
- 15:15 From Knowledge to Action: The Drought Toolkit
Explore core tools and methods that translate today's insights into practical drought resilience strategies.
- 16:00 Panel Session
An engaging panel session featuring the day's speakers and an interactive Q&A.
- 16:30 Conference Social

BOOK NOW